Our Young Men's

Suits and Overcoats for the fall and winter have made the greatest hit of any line we have ever shown.

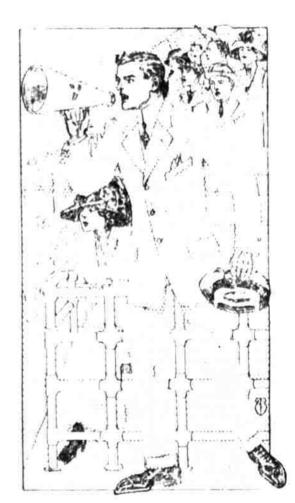

You young men generally know what you want in clothes and the good word that those of you who have seen our models have passed along to your friends has made this season, so far, the greatest we have ever bad.

We have the kind of clothes the fellows are wearing at the largest and best-dressed colleges in America. You'll see the same smart, stylish models—the same snappy patterns, and you can buy them just as cheap as the kind you don't want and often find elsewhere without taking any chance because of our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back.

Come in and see us anyway, we like to show these clothes.

Suits and O'coats $10, $15, $20 up to $40

Sweaters $2 to $15. Holeproof Guaranteed Hose. Gloves, street or dress

A new line of the snappiest patterns in the famous "Heidcap" you ever saw $1.00 TO $3.00

Chinese Girl, a Graduate of an American School, Will Speak.

A novel feature of the association pageant to be given Sunday at the Temple Theater will be a talk given by Miss Lee Ma Li, a Chinese girl. Miss Li's life has been an interesting one. She left her home, accompanied by Miss Catherine P. King, daughter of President King of Pekin University, to attend an American university. Both girls have finished their colleges and are now returning to China to give their lives to works of charity and re-

It is on their way back that they have consented to stop here and speak to the girls of this University at the * Sunday pageant.
