SHIFT MADE IN LINE

MASTIN GOES TO LEFT GUARD;
MULLIGAN TAKES END.

ATTACK TO MUCH FOR RESERVE

Freshmen Make Slight Gains Through Line, But Backs Return Ball Without Delay—Frank Makes Long Run.

The team departs tonight for the land of the Tigers in better physical condition than they have been at any time during the season. Potter and Harmon will be in the lineup against the Tigers, although the latter has not been in scrimmage for nearly two weeks.

Coach Stiehm has made quite a change in the line, shifting Mastin from end to left guard. Mulligan has taken Mastin's place at end and is doing good work. This shift has lightened the team considerably, but has made it much speedier.

Practice last night was secret as usual, and consisted of a good, hard scrimmage with the freshmen. The freshmen backs, with the assistance of "Turp" Frank, made several good gains through the varsity line, but the first-year men were unable to withstand the attacks of the Cornhusker backs. Captain Frank made a beautiful run of 90 yards for a touchdown, and the other backfield men found little resistance in the freshman line.

The team will leave tonight over the Burlington for Columbia, accompanied by a few rooters. They are due to arrive in the Tigers' camp some time tomorrow in order to have a light practice before going into the game. Both teams are nearly of the same weight and free from injuries, so a good game may be expected of them Saturday.

NEW BALLROOM IN SIGHT

Commercial Club Will Open Splendid
New Dance Hall for University Affairs.

December 1 is the date reserved by the Lincoln Commercial Club for the occupation of its new quarters, now nearly completed after more than a year's work. Incidentally, one of the finest ballrooms in the city will probably be thrown open to the use of University students.

Complying with the original plans, this hall will be used as a dining-room by the club. It can be easily cleared, however, thus giving a hall 100x56 feet with small balconies at either end, furnishing an ideal place for an orchestra. The hall is beautifully finished in white marble and waxed oak. Light will be secured by the new system of reflected illumination used extensively in all the newest buildings.

An oak floor equal to any in the city is now being laid throughout the entire third floor. Secretary Whitten says that it is not at all improbable that the hall can be secured for University affairs at a very reasonable price.

Annual Torchlight Procession Tonight to Send the Team off to Missouri

Once again the "howling hundreds" will meet to give the team the proper send-off. Tonight at 8:30 o'clock the campus will be the starting point of the biggest torchlight parade ever held at Nebraska. At the head will be the team and coaches in a carryall drawn by fifty willing Cornhuskers. Behind will be a long, snaky, sinuous line of torches, each in the hands of a rooter, who would put a whirling dervish to shame. And on the side lines will be banks of co-eds to lend encouragement.

From the campus the parade will proceed to the Burlington depot, where the farewell will end only when there are no more speeches to be made and everyone is so hoarse that not even a whisper can be heard. The fact that it is Hallowe'en, it is hoped, will not cause any dampening of enthusiasm or prevent any of the usual stunts from being pulled off.

Those who have not torches from last year may procure them from the Rag office after 11 o'clock today. And, say, don't forget that booster button. The band still lacks enough to pay their expenses to Missouri, although they are working hard. This is the first time that the students alone have attempted to send the band with the team, so do your part. The band is necessary to beat the Tigers.

Now, don't forget the time or place—8:30 o'clock, and at the campus—and we will give the team such a send-off that they will have to beat the Tigers.

PROMOTIONS MADE

THIRD-YEAR CADETS BEING AS-SIGNED NEW DUTIES.

DRILLING AWKWARD SQUAD

Lieutenant Bowman Inaugurates Conference Between Himself and Companies Every Night—New Non-commissioned Positions.

Each day now there are new appointments being made in the military department by Lieutenant Bowman from among the third-year men. The latest appointments are the promotions of Oskar E. Edison to the rank of quartermaster-sergeant of Company I, and of L. E. Wettling to the rank of ordnance sergeant. The latter is a new office created in the department this year, the ordnance sergeant being under the ordnance captain, and having charge of guns, equipment and the rifle ranges.

The second-year men have not yet been sufficiently tried out for further appointments, and nothing can be determined at the present time regarding the positions they are to hold in the companies. The "second-year awkward squad," under the leadership of Sergeant Johnson, is rapidly rounding into shape as a well-disciplined body, and all the company "non-coms" will be selected from it. Every evening several men are selected to act as sergeants, corporals, and file closers in the squad, and others are assigned temporary positions in their own companies. By this method the relative status of the men in the companies can soon be determined.

An innovation of Lieutenant Bowman this year is to be a conference between the commandant and the companies before each drill period, at 4:55 p. m. By this means it is believed that the men and the commandant will be brought into closer contact than by any other method and the routine of drill will present a more interesting aspect to the men in the ranks.

OMAHA ALUMNI OPPOSE CLAPP

Gate City Organization Passes Resolutions in Derogation of Athletic System at the University.

Relief from "molly-coddle rules" of the Missouri Valley Conference, hindering the development of vigorous athletics at the University was demanded by the Omaha alumni association at a meeting held in Omaha Tuesday evening.

Resolutions to this effect were addressed to the regents and to such other authority as might have power to act.

The alumni went on record as favoring the withdrawal of Dr. R. G. Clapp from participation in the athletic management. This action was expected by those in touch with the situation, on account of the known personal hostility that has existed between Dr. Clapp and those who are now trying to discredit him.

Of pent interest to University students, the Omaha alumni went so far as to suggest that Nebraska withdraw from the valley conference, if such action was necessary to obtain the desired relief from restrictive measures.

Dr. Clapp, in the course of an interview last evening, declared that the criticisms levied against the conference were misdirected, that in reality the rules complained of were adopted at the instance of the presidents and regents of the various institutions that comprise the conference.

"The rules forbidding the training table, and the playing of games off the University campus," he said, "were drawn up by the presidents and regents of the colleges in the Missouri Valley Conference, and were later adopted by the conference to provide a uniformity of rulings. As to the other charges, although they are in part inspired by personal feeling, there is nothing to be said at present."

PLANS FOR TRAIL COMPLETED

Annual Y. W. Event Comes Saturday
Night—Musical Program This Year
Year in Charge of Mrs. Helms.

Plans are now being completed for "The Trail," which is to be held the coming Saturday evening in the Temple Theater. The program is a musical one, in charge of Mrs. Lillian Dobbs Helms. It will be composed of American songs in four groups—songs we found, brought, borrowed, and made.

They will be given in costume and with appropriate stage settings. Other musical selections will be given between scenes, further particulars of which will be announced later.

"The Trail" is an annual Y. W. C. A. event. Last year "stunts" were put on by the various organizations about school. The program this year is of an entirely different nature. While the school as a whole is not taking part, the program will be as entertaining to everyone.
