GRANT G. MARTIN

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Candidate for Second Term

Renominated without opposition by Republican party at April primary. Endorsed Sept. 5, by Progressive party. Election, Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1912.

Grant G. Martin, the law officer of the state, was born in Iowa 48 years ago, graduated from Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, in 1885, and three years later received the degree of Master of Philosophy. He was admitted to the bar in 1889, and since has been continuously engaged in the practice of law. For seventeen years he resided at Fremont, Dodge county, Nebraska, and served two terms as county attorney of that county. Former Attorney General Thompson solicited Mr. Martin to become his assistant. He served two years as assistant attorney general, and two years as deputy attorney general. Mr. Martin was elected attorney general in 1911, and is now a candidate for re-election, having been renominated without opposition by the Republican party at the April primary and indorsed September 5th by the progressive party. His son, Wade Martin, was graduated from the State University in 1911.
