

CLASS GAMES BEGIN

JUNIORS TO PLAY SENIORS NEXT THURSDAY.

JERSEYS TO BE GIVEN VICTORS

Small Admission Will Be Charged to Meet Expenses of Sweaters—Ineligibility List Is Given Out by Board.

The interclass athletic board held its meeting yesterday, making preparations for the interclass games. Twenty first-year men were decided upon as being ineligible for the interclass games this year. All upper classmen who have made one trip with the varsity squad or who have won an "N" are also barred from participation.

The board decided upon Thursday, November 21, as being the date of the junior-senior game. The following Tuesday, the day before everybody goes home to eat turkey, the championship game will be played between the winners of the other two contests.

Admission to Be Charged.

It has always been the custom to give sweaters to the winners of the class championship games, but it has been a sort of a hard proposition to get money to buy the coveted jersey. It was decided by the board that a small admission fee be charged for these games. For the first game a small dime will let you past the gatekeeper, but the championship game will come a little higher, costing 15 cents. A committee consisting of Rodman, Kruse, Dobbs and Ankeny was appointed to look after the financial affairs of the two games.

Registrar Must Pass on Men.

The managers of the class teams are required to place the names of the men they expect to play in the hands of the Registrar not less than two days before the scheduled game. Any person whose name has not been handed in will be barred from participation in any game.

The list of the freshies which the coaches have decided upon as being varsity material will be barred from interclass games, viz: Coffee, McCarty, Riddell, Rutherford, Shields, Schirmerda, Benson, E. Cameron, Eaton, Schissler, Van Meter, Votaw, Lindberg, Mills, Hugg, Hosek, Bittinger, Kinsman, Bayless and Bowman. —Jimmy.

STUDENT IN CONTEMPT.

Editor of Daily Illini Placed Under Bond by Illinois Court.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 14.—A. H. Ogle of Belleville, Ill., a senior in the University of Illinois and editor of The Illini, the university students' paper, was placed under $500 bonds yesterday for contempt of court. He criticised the grand jury in the university paper for its action in investigating the recent riot at a local theater where students were celebrating a football victory.

Ames and Nebraska are the only schools left in the Valley Championship race. Drake was eliminated from the race last Saturday by Missouri, who was defeated by Ames and Nebraska. This also disposes of Kansas, for the Jayhawkers were defeated by the Drake team. If Nebraska loses to Kansas the Aggie aggregation will be the champs, but if not the race will be a tie unless Ames loses to Drake the 23d of the month.

Wonder where our dear friend obtained his information concerning Jumbo's concession? At any rate, Missouri has been disposed of and that is more than Drake can crow over. Kansas is now the only obstacle in the path leading to the championship, but if everything is working smoothly Saturday this will be pushed aside. As to Stiehm's assertions, they no doubt originated in some of the Iowa papers in the near vicinity of Des Moines.

Telephone Yule Bros at once.

We note that Stiehm is going to concede the Missouri Valley title to Nebraska as soon as the Cornhuskers defeat Missouri and Kansas. Nebraska hasn't won those games yet, and even if she does only an extraordinary combination of circumstances could give her a ghost of a claim to the title. However, Nebraska has the habit of claiming that championship even if she doesn't defeat a single school in the Conference, and Jumbo Stiehm's assertions are not seriously regarded by reputable sports authorities. —Drake Delphic.

Pittsburg (Pa.) College boasts of one record, acquired recently, which they defy any other university in the country to equal. An Englishman known as K. A. Shawlinton, 84 years of age, is taking the prescribed course in the School of Agriculture. He was born in the year 1828; has been a sailor, a gold miner in California and Australia, a Pennsylvania farmer, and now has registered for a complete course in the science of agriculture. He is not expected to make the football team, but is right there when it comes to cheering for the old school.
