Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1912.

The University Glee Club has issued a call for a college anthem, a song that will in its lines and melody breathe the air and atmosphere of our own University. Students, gifted in the art of musical and lyrical composition could apply their time and energies to no better pursuit than the writing of such a song, for in so doing they will render a great service to Nebraska. For a good many years one of our crying needs has been a University song, something that is original and local, the strains of which would be an inspiration to the sons and daughters of the school.

A University song will engender University spirit, for it will give all of the students something in common, the enjoyment of which will be unrestricted and universal. The task is not an easy one, but there should be some student on the campus who is endowed with the gifts to write for us what we want. Here's hoping that he or she divines an inspiration and gets busy.

There is nothing I hate so much as the grimaces of all those great protestation mongers, those obsequious dealers of unmeaning embraces, those obliging utterers of empty words, who vie with each other in civilities, and treat in the same manner the honorable man and the vain fool. What advantage do you find in being the object of the endearments of a man who makes vows to you of friendship, faith, zeal, esteem, tenderness; who crushes you with promises; who bestows on you a brilliant enconium; when he rushes to do the same to the first snob he meets? No, no one who respects himself would care for esteem so debased; and even that which we most prize has little value if it includes the whole human race. Friendship should be based on esteem, but to esteem everybody is to esteem nobody. Mollere.

NO SKATING ON CAMPUS.

of the athletic board and of the military department, but natural conditions interfered with its successful accomplishment. Lieut. Bowman, in whose hands lay the disposal of the field for drill purposes during the winter and spring months, gave his unqualified consent. The field was to have been flooded during the Christmas vacation, during which time the "studens" would have time to practice up on that Dutch Roll and Figure Eight, but now these dreams have vanished. It's to be the long, dismal road to the beach instead.

In addition to the skating rink proposition, the board voted to pay the transportation expenses of the football team to Omaha January 8 for the Alumni Banquet. This banquet is going to be a grand affair and an extra large crowd of alumni are expected from out in the state.

The athletic board will meet the first week in January for a special meeting to further consider the constitution which they been working on for some time. This meeting will probably adopt a new constitution. W. F.
