HARRY BURTIS WINS PRIZE IN CLUB ANTHEM

After Close Competition Winner Is Selected by Contest Committee With Assistance of Professor Frye.

At last the university has a new anthem which will undoubtedly prove very popular among the students. Through the untiring efforts of the innocents and the Glee club enough interest was aroused so that over a dozen anthems were offered and among these the one selected as best was the work of Harry Burtis, '13.

The words were written by Burtis and the music by John M. Roseborough instructor in harmony at the University School of Music.

The words were approved by Professor Frye of the rhetoric department and Mrs. Raymond and Mr. Kirkpatrick were consulted on the music.

The second choice of the anthems offered fell to Mr. C. B. Cornell, director of the university cadet band.

The Glee club committee which made the selection showed no partiality in their choice as under the conditions of the contest the copies were numbered and the names of the contestants placed in corresponding envelopes.

The anthem written by Burtis will be sung by the University Glee Club in concert and four as will also the one submitted by Cornell, who was awarded the second choice.

TO RETURN FOR PROM

MANY ALUMNI ARE SIGNIFYING INTENTION TO ATTEND HOMECOMING.

BIG PREPARATIONS GOING ON

Committees Work Hard Sending Out Letters and Making Ready.—Fussy Fixings for Fair Favored Ones.

Examinations are over. Sorority rushing is now a thing of the past; co-eds but silently await the outcome. Registration is an accomplished fact and we have parted from our money with the universal resolve that "next semester we are going to study and excuses will no longer be the night mare they have been."

With the passing of these important events, however, comes the ever-present and ever-prevalent desire to "turn our attention to the next thing of real importance." What is it? University society with one accord has turned its eyes upon the coming Junior-Senior Prom.

February 22 as a day of importance is not merely the birthday anniversary of a certain historical character possessing cherry tree fame, but it now assumes a new and nearer significance, it is the date upon which will be held the University of Nebraska's greatest social function.

Other events when viewed by themselves are all well enough, but when compared with the big they become luminaries of less importance and the Junior-Senior Prom, clearly shines forth as a star of the greater magnitude.

There are three main reasons for this greatness: First. The auditorium floor is large enough to accommodate both upper classmen and alumni. Second. Because the number accommodated and the $4.00 price of ticket put at committee's disposal a fund two to three times as much capital as has any previous Prom committee had. Third. Because every dollar of the funds will be spent to make the Prom the success that it is sure to be.

Special features are: A scheme of decorations by an expert, favors that are sure to make a hit, a good bunch of "unique" features which the committee will not divulge, and a floor that will be the equal of any in the city. The Commercial Club and the committee are spending between $50 and $75 in planing, leveling and waxing the floor.

The largest number of alumni that ever attended a University dance will be at the big 1913 Prom. The Omaha alumni have taken the lead by making reservations and inquiries are coming from many other places. The fact that the dance is to be held on Saturday

New Trophy Presented Council to Be Given for High Scholarship—Competition Commences September 1914.

In assembled conclave the united greeks of the school sat down at the festive board at the Lincoln hotel last Saturday evening with much enthusiasm and a general feeling of concord "Vovdvil," speeches, songs and the giving of a new trophy for scholarship marked the entire evening's entertainment. Dr. Maxey brought the whole to a climax with the only serious speech on record against him.

Ex-Governor Aldrich acted as toastmaster and introduced Chancellor Avery, who spoke on "Nebraska Organizations," H. W. Monicle responding to "Frats and Frats," Fred Hunter delivered an inspiring talk on "Nebraska Loyalty." Dr. S. Lees gave some advice on rushing during the coming semester. Dr. Maxey concluded the evening with a dissertation on "Why Here We Are" and although humorous possibilities seemed certain this turned out to be the most thoughtful talk of the evening.

Before the toasts proper commenced Judge Hinner presented to the inter fraternity council a silver trophy to be held by the local chapter of Delta Tau Delta until September 1914 and from that time on to be given that national fraternity having the highest standing in scholarship. The award is to be made each year by the chancellor who has the power to amend the rules governing the award at any time he may see fit. After the presentation Omega Tau chapter of Delta Tau Delta rose and gave their yell which was the only fraternity yell given during the evening.

SORORITY RUSHING OVER

Final Parties Saturday Close Season. Much Dissatisfaction Over New Rules.

First semester sorority rushing closed Saturday with final parties given by many. Pledging will not occur until the final reports are all in which will not be before February 15 at the earliest.

Much dissatisfaction has been expressed throughout the whole period of rushing over the inefficiency of the new rules from which so much was expected. Both the freshmen girls and the members of the various sororities are worn out with continual entertaining and being entertained. Much complaint is made that the freshmen have had their heads turned and that in general they are as far back in their studies as they would have been with pledging coming after the first week of school in former years.

DECISIVE SCORES IN EACH CASE

Carrier Plays Steady Easy Game Which Promises Him Position on Missouri Valley—Haskell Does Fast Work.

On Friday and Saturday of last week the home team won its first two official games in the northern half of the Missouri Valley conference. Friday Nebraska beat Drake by the score of 32 to 7 and Saturday by the score of 24 to 15.

The two victories coming as they do after the defeat at the hands of Minnesota are a source of pleasure to the followers of the game. After the loss of Hiltner, Frank and Gibson, last year's stars, it was feared that Stiehm would have difficulty in building up another championship team. But the two easy victories over Drake show that again the name Nebraska will be dreaded by our sister institutions.

Within two minutes after the start of play Friday, Stryker tossed the ball into the basket from the center of the floor and an instant later Haskell brought the audience to its feet by a duplicate. Aside from the spectacular long shots by Nebraska the game was slow and uninteresting. Drake's playing being especially poor. The visitors seemed to be rattled and persisted in passing the ball into Nebraska's hands or throwing it away. During the second half Drake did not make a goal from the field and Nebraska indulged in a brisk game of hide and seek.

Determined not to be again humiliated the visitors came back Saturday and gave the home boys an interesting tussle. Captain King of Drake especially played a hard game. His splendid dribbling received considerable applause. Time and again when unable to find a teammate free he would dash across the floor dodging several players, and shoot for the basket. For Nebraska, Captain Carrier was the star, securing four field goals. Stryker again easily outplayed his opponent. In fact he prevented Colville from getting a single goal in either game but in the second he and Page fought each other hard, each securing one goal.

Drake is again met, this time on her own floor at Des Moines on February 19 and 20. By that time developments may have appeared which will give Nebraska a much harder run for their money
