INCREASE IN REGISTRATION.

More Students Enroll This Year Than Last—New System of Overlapping Semesters Successful.

One hundred more students than last year is the record set for the second semester registration. The total enrollment is 2,042. The Armory was crowded at all times with students eager to start in their new work, but at no time was there any congestion.

This is the second time that classes have been extended through the period of registration and the new system is said to have been entirely successful.
