

Y. M. C. A. STATE CONVENTION OPENS TODAY

Will Last Four Days With Ten Sessions and Many Special Conferences.

The Thirty-second state convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Nebraska, begins today with the annual convention dinner, which will be held at the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. building, beginning at 6:30.

The convention will last four days during which time ten general sessions will be held as well as student conferences, which will be arranged for. All men of the state are invited to attend this great convention as there will be something of interest for everyone, business and professional men, college students, members of boards of directors, committeemen, etc.

A program fee of $1 will be charged to cover convention expenses. The headquarters of the convention will be at the Y. M. C. A. building and at the First Presbyterian church. Some of the convention speakers are: Chancellor Frank Strong of the University of Kansas, William E. Sweet, Denver, Col., Rev. S. H. Forrer of Erie, Penn., George D. McDill of Chicago, Ill., A. G. Knebel of New York city, Arthur Cotton of New York city and John W. Nippe, Interstate Student secretary.

Artistic dance programs and menus for particular people. George Bros. Printers, 1313 N street.

Be It Resolved, That we, the members of the Senior Law Class of the University of Nebraska, do hereby extend our heartfelt sympathy, to our classmate and friend, Harry C. Goggins, for the loss of his beloved mother.

Be It Further Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Daily Nebraskan and a copy of the same sent to Harry C. Goggins.
