

TOURNAMENT PROVING SUCCESS.

seemed to have the advantage. They made a total of six points in the first half, and seemed to dazzle their opponents by their swift team-work. The Elginites scored a total of three points. In the second half the crowd, composed largely of supporters of other teams who feared Lincoln as a possible competitor encouraged the Elgin boys, who responded nobly. They sailed into the local team, breaking up their team-work, and beating down their guards. The race was nip and tuck until the very end when the visitors made a final spurt and won the game. The Lincoln players made a number of fouls in the second half, and the free throws on these fouls helped to defeat them.
