JOINT PROGRAM SCORES HIT

GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUBS GIVE SELECTIONS WHICH PLEASE AUDIENCE

QUARTETTE A SUCCESS

Singing Four Repeatedly Applauded.—Radcliffe and Rosenbaum Render Extra Selections Effectively.

Last night at the Temple Theatre the University Glee and Mandolin Clubs appeared before a small but appreciative audience in the most successful entertainment given by any organization this year. From the spirited notes of the opening selection to the fascinating strains of the Recessional the combined clubs held their audience spell-bound.

In Part I the clubs appeared in dress suit with scarlet ribbons across their shirt fronts, while in Part II they were dressed in uniforms and were unconventionally gathered about a camp fire.

The Glee Club quartet made the hit of the evening. Instead of some musical selection the four, composed of Erb, Allison, Keefer and Westover, offered a humorous skit of mingled song and acting. Apparently unaware of a roaring audience they so successfully carried out their part that they were encored four times and it was only after the following number was well under way that the excited listeners would cease their applause.

In the role of reader Mr. Clayton Radcliffe gave several intensely interesting selections while Mr. Harold Rosenbaum at the piano rendered two solos with perfect technique and expression. The whole program was well carried out and reflected much credit upon the managers as well as upon the directors and the clubs themselves.

BOARD AWARDS LETTERS

In Official Meeting of Athletic Board Six Men Are Granted "N" Sweaters.—Haskell Captain.

At an official meeting of the board Thursday night letters were awarded to the following men for basketball: Capt. Carrier, Stryker, Haskell, Hyde, Underwood and Hawkins. It was also voted to recall the silver basketballs that were awarded last season. There seems to have been a mistake of some sort by which silver instead of gold medals were given. This will necessitate two engravings on those of the men who were on the team last year. Reserve sweaters were voted to "Big Seven," Meyer, Meier, Howe and Howard. The Freshmen on the varsity squad were not given any recognition for their services.

Ross Haskell of the class of 1913 in the Arts and Sciences College, was elected captain of the team for the season of 1913-1914. He is one of the most popular men in school and was placed on the All-Missouri Valley team for the last two years. He will undoubtedly lead the team to as successful an end as they have had for the last few seasons. The baseball schedule was approved and a salary was voted for an assistant coach for the team. Milo Hanzlick was elected a member of the athletic board to fill the vacancy left by the graduation of Art Hiltner.

ENGINEERING STUDENTS MAKE VOCATION TESTS

Refrigeration Plant and Gas Producer Outfit Are Tested for Experiments and Thesis Work.

A number of the engineering students spent their vacation in the mechanical engineering laboratories for the purpose of testing the artificial ice and refrigeration plant and the gas producing machine that have been installed in the laboratories.

The producer outfit was installed very soon after the laboratories were built in 1910 but has been left in an unfinished condition owing to the fact that it was the last large piece of apparatus installed. Professor Dean and his assistants were unable to get the machine in order to make the tests last week and they will have to be put off indefinitely, although the machine is now in perfect working condition.

One very important line of investigation was run as a thesis by some of the seniors. A complete test of the refrigeration plant was made, the machine being started on Saturday and constantly run until the next Tuesday. The men manufactured two tons of ice, and are now busy preparing the necessary scientific calculations.

ECONOMIC PRIZES OFFERED TO STIMULATE INTEREST

Hart Schaffner and Marx Offers Four Prizes for Studies in Economic Field.

In order to arouse an interest in the study of topics relating to commerce and industry, and to stimulate those who have a college training to consider the problems of a business career, a committee composed of professors from a number of the large universities, has been enabled, through the generosity of Hart Schaffner and Marx, to offer in 1914 four prizes for the best studies in the economic field. The contestants will be divided into two classes A and B. Class B will include those who at the time the papers are sent in are undergraduate students in some American college. Class A includes any other Americans without restriction. The prizes in class A are $1,000 a year for first and second. In class B the prizes are $200 and $200.

The committee reserves to itself the right to award the two prizes of $1,000 and $500 of class A to undergraduates in class B if the merits of the papers demand it. The committee also reserves the privilege of dividing the prizes offered, if justice can best be obtained thereby.

The winner of a prize shall not receive the amount designated until he has prepared his manuscript for the printer to the satisfaction of the committee.

The studies should be inscribed with an assumed name, the class in which they are presented, and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the real name and address of the competitor.

No paper is eligible which has been printed or published in any form to disclose the identity of the author before the awards have been made. Those entering in class B should also enclose in the sealed envelope the name of the institution in which he is studying. Papers should be sent on or before June 1, 1914, to J. Laurence Laughlin, Esq., University of Chicago, Ill. For information in regard to subjects see posted bulletins.

Senior invitations have been ordered. There are two kinds from which to choose. One has a cover of white cardboard and the other cover is of dark leather. Orders will be taken Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the library building.

C. L. YOCHUM,

Chairman Invitation Committee.

GYM EXHIBITION TONIGHT

LIGHTWEIGHT WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE UNIVERSITY WILL BE DETERMINED.

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS A FEATURE

Difficult Feats On Parallel Bars and Flying Rings Will Be Essayed By Feminine Athletes.—Tickets Going Fast.

Dr. Clapp has announced the following list of patrons and patronesses for the ninth annual gymnastic exhibition to be held tonight at the Armory at 8 o'clock.

Chancellor and Mrs. Samuel Avery, Regent and Mrs. C. B. Anderson, Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest E. Barbour, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Guenther, Dr. and Mrs. Farnham, Mrs. Clapp.

Probably the two numbers on the program which are attracting the most attention are the wrestling match, and the heavy gymnastics number by the women. The wrestling match, which will be for the lightweight championship of the University will be limited to ten minutes unless a fall is secured before that time. If the referee is unable to decide a victor at the end of ten minutes then another three minutes will be given, but in no case will the wrestling match take up more than thirteen minutes. This will insure a fast match with something doing all the time and no "stalling."

The women will put on a heavy gymnastic exhibition for the first time since the exhibitions have been open to all students of the University. A reporter who saw some of them in practice guarantees that they can equal anything now performing under the canvas tops, and that some of their stunts on the flying rings make a mere man shudder with horror.

Tickets, which are on sale at Porter's and the Co-Op for twenty-five and thirty-five cents, are going fast. Any student who has never seen any of these exhibitions will do well to lay aside his books and go.

Lillian Pearse will spend the week end with Sylvia Smith at Syracuse.

Alvin Blanhoern of Franklin, and W. C. Gibberson of Minnesota, are visiting friends at the Bushnell Guild house.

Alpha Phi Back For Formal.

The following girls are back for the Alpha Phi formal Saturday: Louise Stegner, Mary and Ruth Haller, Edna Sweeley, Marjorie Beckett and Jennie Underlon of Omaha; Marie Douglas of Plattsmouth, Ruth Anderson and Eva Milenz of Wahoo, Gladys Weaver of Norfolk and Ruth Henninger of Pawnee City.
