Next Tuesday morning 10:30 convocation will be given over to a performance of Wagner's Lohengrin as a benefit for the Omaha tornado sufferers. An admission of twenty-five cents will be charged and the proceeds without any expenditure for expenses will be sent to the relief fund for that purpose.

The opera will be delivered by the university chorus accompanied by an excellent orchestra and soloists of note in the state. The chorus and its accompaniment have given this performance several times in the last year and it has always made a strong hit. Critics state that the student body is destined to enjoy a rendition of Wagner's greatest work which even more critical audiences would deem first-class.

The idea comes as the result of pub-

Scarcity of Men for Weights and Jump Makes Coach Fume

In spite of the fact that quite a number of men have reported for work on the track there is yet a great scarcity of men in the weights and field events.
Particularly is the scarcity felt in these events for there are very few men out for them. The high and broad jumpers have as yet not been able to do much work on account of the adverse weather.

Although there are a great many out for the distances, there are several opportunities in that direction for several good men. The list of sprinters is without doubt the largest and contains some very fast material.

The tryouts for the Drake relay teams and the track team will be held tomorrow afternoon on the athletic field. For the Drake relay races Nebraska will send two teams, one for the half and the other for the mile relay. In each event the Cornhuskers will without doubt run against the University of Chicago who are also entered in the meet.

The track is in poor shape due to the almost continuous downpour of the past few days and the time made Saturday will not be representative of the real worth of the men.

Sale of Senior Bids Closes Thursday With 2,300 Sold

Chairman Yoehum, of the senior invitation committee announced that many took advantage of the extended time for the purchase of invitations.
Thursday was the last day allotted for the sale and all orders were sent in Thursday morning to Charles Elliott & Co., Philadelphia, who were awarded the printing contract. Although it was supposed that more would be sold, the sale was nevertheless quite satisfactory and about 300 invitations were disposed of Thursday.
The entire number sold was approximately 2,300.

UNI BAND PLAYS TONIGHT

MILITARY MUSICIANS TO MAKE
MELODY FLOW BEFORE UNI-VERSITY AUDIENCE.

UNDER LEADERSHIP OF CORNELL

Director Has Had Much Experience and Is Said to Have Proteges in Excellent Shape for Tonight.

This evening in the Temple theatre the University band will present to the student and general public one of the biggest and most important all-University events of the school year in the annual concert. In consideration of the genuine talent and the faithful practice that have been characteristic of the band heretofore during the year, the prediction is safe that the program the organization will render this evening will be a surprise all out of proportion to the credit which is generally given to Nebraska's military musicians.

The ability and experience of Mr.
C. B. Brown, the leader, is a sufficient recommendation to warrant a delightful program. That Mr. Cornell is a musical leader of no mean skill is apparent from his past accomplishments in the musical world of Lincoln. When
