

PICNIC TIME

has arrived at last. To make your party enjoyable let us put up your lunch. We absolutely guarantee the daintiest and best for the money of any you can get.

Don't forget that we pay special attention to after-the-theatre or matinee parties.

Private banquet-room for 20 or more.

The Folsom Cafe

1325 to 1331 N Street

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★
 ★ CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK ★
 ★ 12th and O Streets ★
 ★ P. A. Hall—President ★
 ★ F. H. Johnson—Vice-Pres. ★
 ★ W. W. Hackney, Jr.—Asst Cash. ★
 ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

PROMINENT TRI DELTS LEAVE

Faith and Helen Schwind Left Thursday for New Home In Texas.— Many Social Events For Them.

A number of parties have been given during the past week for Faith and Helen Schwind who left yesterday for Francitas, Texas, where they will make their future home. Helen is a Junlor in the Arts and Science College and Faith is a Sophomore in the Agriculture College.

Monday night Ella Morrison entertained the Tri Delta sorority at dinner in their honor. Saturday morning Esther Bennett gave a breakfast and Saturday afternoon Marian Pettis entertained at a Kensington. Helen Butler entertained a few of their most intimate friends at a Sunday night luncheon. The last event was a picnic at the "Penn" woods Tuesday afternoon.

SPRING FEVER.

I want to stroll by a babbling brook where the water's not H2O.
 I want to forget the one thousand things a collegian has to know.
 I want to forget that a common frog is a Rama Pipiens.
 I want to sit on a fallen log—not the king we have in Trig
 I want it to be in the soft brown earth, not in musty tones when I dig.
 I want to happen to meet some one by the brooks green willow border.
 The sort of meeting that can't be seen by Robert's Rules of Order!
 —Ex.

"What Does the College Woman Expect of the College Man?"

"Honest little girlie I am strong for you And when you go away I'm going to—"

Oh, yes, Reginald, we know that you think the world of her and all that sort of rubbish, but really, boy, really, "are you sincere?" For instance, you slip us the word that you "queen" her out to all the games and take her to church EVERY Sunday night, but say, honestly now, if it weren't for the Student's Pass and that "Cordial Welcome" sign over the church door wouldn't you be running with the "Gotta-Girl-Back-Home-as?"

'Nother thing; we know that you and "jimmy pipe" are well nigh inseparable of course, but on that little afternoon stroll, are you gentleman enough to leave "jimmy" at home or do you mumble the inevitably "May-I-Smoke?" as you pull out the curved can, leaving the lady in the position where she must either accept your terms or flatly deny you the privilege?

Again: when you see her bending over a book in the library do you rush up and begin to buzz around like the drone bee that you are, or do you first find out whether or not she has scruples against talking in the library, or against wasting study time in idle conversation?

Or: say that you take her to the opera. You really can't afford it and you think she doesn't expect it of you, but at the end of the first act you fish out a big box of Lowney's and with prodigal waste feed her and her neighbor's neighbor until incidentally you have feed everyone in your row of seats, and then you wonder perhaps if it wouldn't have been wiser to have brought taffy instead, and to have fed it to 'em out of a barrel.

Which brings us down to the question in hand: "What does the college woman expect of the college man?" Does she expect him to be "spender" or "saver," "swell" or "anti-swell," gentleman or "tough," selfish or considerate "steady" or friend, boy or man? What attitude does she expect him to take towards college authority, student morality, the Christian Associations, literary activity, social life, or sportsmanlike conduct in athletics?—Ex.

Patronize Our Advertisers.

Ode.

Puer ex Jersey lens ad school
 Vidit in meadow,
 Infestum mule.

Ille approaches.
 Oh, magnus sorrow
 Puer it skyward
 Funeral ad morrow.

MORAL

Qui vidit a thing.
 Non ei well known.
 Est bene for him.
 Relinquit it alone.

—Anonymous.

Quite True!

Dr. Dales (in Chem 5 quiz): "Miss Hyde, what is a test for gold?"
 Elizabeth Hyde—"The way it lasts."

Patronize Our Advertisers.

The University School of Music

Established 1894

Thorough instruction by modern methods in all branches of Music, practical and theoretical.

Pianoforte

Voice

Pipe Organ

Violin

All Wind Instruments

Public School Music

Special Summer Term Begins June 23rd

Apply for Information to

WILLARD KIMBALL, Director

11th and R Streets