FUND IS ALMOST INTACT

STUDENT LOAN DONATION NOT USED TO ANY GREAT EXTENT.

$600 RECENTLY ADDED

One Hundred Dollars Already Donated by Mrs. Ida M. Carter—Balance Will Be Received in Installments.

The Nebraska students loan fund which at the present time amounts to three thousand one hundred dollars is apparently not taken advantage of to the extent to which one would expect. According to the last report of Secretary Dales, the amount paid out on loans reaches five hundred eighty-five dollars, leaving almost the whole of the residue in bonds available for loans upon request.

The student loan fund is a sum of money which was last year donated by John A. Waddell, John R. Webster and William G. Whitmore, each of whom contributed a thousand dollars to the whole sum. The Webster donation, of which the interest alone can be used, and the unused portions of the Waddell and Whitmore donations are invested in securities, the interest of which is used to increase the general fund. The loans are made under rules prescribed by the board of regents.

The fund has recently received an addition in the sum of six hundred dollars given by Mrs. Ida M. Carter, one hundred of which has been given, and the remainder to be given in installments.

Forms Are Finally Closed For 1913 Annual-- Out Last of Month

After months of grinding work and long hours spent in rounding the 1913 year book into shape, the editor-in-chief announces that everything is in the hand of the printer. Nothing more will be accepted for the annual, as the forms are now closed. The campus fusser is safe from the fatal snapshot and may well feel relieved at having this prying eye removed.

As first announced, there will be two styles of binding of the book. One is bound in durable cloth and sells for $2, and the other is bound in a fine quality of leather, selling for $2.50.

There are still a few copies remaining of the second set of books ordered, and any one wishing to purchase an annual may obtain one at the original price. If one does not purchase until the books are issued he will be charged an additional 25 cents to cover the additional cost entailed. This should be an incentive to purchase now in the few days of grace remaining.

ENGLISH CLUB.

The last meeting of the English club will be held at the home of the Misses Jean and Erma Sullivan, 1645 R street, instead of at the home of Miss Ruth Munger, as was formerly announced. The date is Saturday, May 10.

Dr. Wolcott Points Out Importance of Study of Eugenics

Advocating the study of eugenics as a means of improving the human race, Dr. Wolcott gave a lecture Tuesday morning before a large audience composed mostly of medical students who had been dismissed from classes to hear the lecture.

Dr. Wolcott pointed out, by means of chart and examples, the evils which result from the mating of persons of feeble minds. One case was related in which a man's children in a marriage with a feeble-minded woman became criminals and degenerates, while his children with a strong-minded woman in a later marriage grew into statesmen and respectable citizens. Dr. Wolcott also showed the effects of environment upon the rearing of children.

The lecture was given as the result of an offer made by Mrs. Lucy Wilson of Washington to a university which would produce a lecture on the subject of eugenics to be given before the student body by one of its professors.
