

Dramatic Club Weeds Out Inapt Thesians On Night of May 14

The date of the annual Dramatic Club tryouts has been set for May 14. As usual the candidates will be given from three to five minutes in which to display their dramatic ability. Recitations and short readings will not be considered by the committee. Those desiring to compete in dialogue will be granted from five to seven minutes. Those wishing to try out should see the secretary, Miss Ethel Hill in F. 106 before May 14. The successful candidates will be initiated before the annual banquet of the club.

Lunch to be Served At Senior Hop at Capital Beach May 20

Elaborate plans are being made for the combined senior hop and masquerade of May 20. The fourth-year men feel that this will be the one dance to be remembered of the school year, and as they are combining their two last dances into this one, extra steps will be taken to make it an event in senior history as well as in the social affairs of the school. A lunch will be served—something novel, the committee promises. Music will be furnished by Hagensick. "It isn't necessary to know how to dance," says Radcliffe, "to have a good time at the senior hop." Tickets will be out this week.
