HOPEFUL OF TRACK MEET

ENTHUSIASTS DECLARE NEBRASKA HAS GOOD SHOW OF TAKING AWAY LAURELS.

KANSAS TEAM IS FAST

Coaches Here Have Been Handicapped By Inexperience of Men From Whom Team Must Be Picked.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock Nebraska will meet Kansas in her annual track meet with the Husker's greatest enemy. Past years have seen both victory and defeat as the part of Nebraska's team and the result this afternoon is as doubtful as ever in the history of competitive sports between the two schools.

Kansas is in the prime of condition. She has fast men in every event and in several record-breakers. Her coaches are of the best in the valley and the enthusiasm shown for track work at their school makes their work of an easy nature. Material comes out in numbers even greater than can be handled by the coaches and a scarcity of men for any event is almost unknown.

Nebraska is fighting against great odds in her track work. The student body has not supported this so-called minor sport as it should and as a result material is dragged out rather than comes of its own accord.

Against this handicap Coaches Reed and Stielm have made great headway. With few veterans back from last year's team, almost an entirely new squad was to be dwelt with this spring. New men for all events were sought out, worked into shape and given the best possible training and coaching by those who have made many successful track teams in past years.

Nebraska has a team and a fast team. Last Saturday against one of the teams most feared in the past, the Ames Aggies, she put up a fight which made the meet uncertain till the last event was over, losing by a bare seven points. With the experience which the as yet untried team gained from this defeat, Nebraska supporters can expect to see a hard fought meet this afternoon, with good chances for the totals favoring Nebraska.

Nebraska Has New Professional Frat Delta Sigma Delta

A new professional fraternity has been added to the list of other organizations at the University. A chapter of Delta Sigma Delta, a national dental fraternity, was installed yesterday, by a number of doctors of dental surgery of Chicago, Omaha and Lincoln. The charter members are students of the Lincoln Dental College which, while not a part of the University is nevertheless affiliated with it.

The installing officers were Dr. Dittmeyer, Dr. Morehead and Dr. Bacon of Chicago. Dr. Dittmeyer is one of the best authorities on oral surgery and all are prominent dentists of Chicago. Those assisting the installing officers were Dr. Wallace, Dr. Nelson and Dr. Barber of Omaha, and Doctors Vance, Pierce and Humphrey of Lincoln.

The doctors all spoke very highly of the University and of the prospects of the department of dentistry. Delta Sigma Delta is one of the oldest and strongest dental fraternities and the men of the dental college are very fortunate in securing a chapter here.

The new fraternity held its first banquet at the Lindell Thursday evening. Previous to this the visitors were taken in automobiles over the city and attended the ball game between Lincoln and Omaha. The charter members are as follows: William Neville, Walter H. Minor, Dale G. Houlette, Leslie R. Houlette, Fred Butz, Y. W. Dorwart, Harold H. Miller, M. H. Westfall, James E. Fonda and Donald D. Donovan.

"Good morning, ma'am," began the temperance worker, "I'm collecting for the inebriate's home, and—"

"Why, me husband's out," replied Mrs. McGuire, "but if ye can find him anywhere ye're welcome to him."—California Pelican.

College Suitor—All evening I have been waiting to say something to you.

Damsel (in despair)—It wasn't good night, was it?—California Pelican.

Hanky—I've had my picture taken.

Panky—Got the proofs?

Kansans Arrive With Fiendish Hopes of Winning Yesterday's Postponed Game

The game with the Kansas University yesterday afternoon was hung over until today on account of the magnificent downpour of sky juice which put the athletic field into a small lake more suitable for duck hunting than athletics. But, notwithstanding, the postponed game will be played this afternoon at four o'clock. The track meet will start two hours earlier, the weather and condition of the grounds permitting.

The Kansas aggregation arrived in the burg yesterday morn with great hopes of capturing the first game played between the two great institutions of learning. They lay their stress upon the inability of the Cornhuskers to hit Bishop, the great Jayhawker slabsman, who has pitched winning ball this season. In the two games against Missouri the mighty Jayhawker came out the winner and won his game against the Kansas Aggies.

The local team have no fears of the aforesaid much touted one Mister Bishop, but are patiently awaiting for Old Sol to carry off some of the surplus moisture. With everything in tip top shape hizoner the umps will cry "Play Ball" this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Soph Forresters Visit Home of the Founder Of Arbor Day

The sophomore Forresters accompanied by a few upper class men and Professor Morrell spent Thursday at Nebraska City looking over the vast Morton estate, Arbor Lodge.

This estate is owned now by the heirs of the founder of Arbor Day, presents ample appurtenances for the study of the tree, there being over two hundred varieties on the place. Mr. McGirk, the landscape gardener and caretaker, took the forresters around the grounds and explained to them practical points in forestry.

Friday the class went to Union, where they met the field geography class under Professor Bergston. They will spend the remaining week studying the rock formations of the Missouri river. Those who made the trip to Arbor Lodge are: Hays, Roberts, Abbott, Janouch, Buace, Palmer, Horne, Forsling, Sleeth, Jensen, Hummel, Olson and Goodman.

JUNIOR HOP IS BIG EVENT

DANCING, PICNICING, BOATING, VAUDEVILLE AND OTHER PLEASURES PROMISED.

ATTEMPT TO MAKE NOVEL AFFAIR

Admittance for Less Than Price of Ordinary Hop—Classes Excused for Those Attending Dance.

The Junior Relief committee have been overtaxing their brains for the past few weeks in seeking means whereby to make the Junior Hop, the date of which has been set for May 16, not only a Morganian Institution that will pay off the debt of the Junior class so thoroughly as to preclude even a murmur thereafter from that source which so scathingly condemns student debts, but likewise a social event that will sate to the uttermost the desire for pleasure of the most radical Epicure.

In return for a price of admission that is considerably below the price of an ordinary hop, the committee has arranged for a myriad of entertainments to start early in the afternoon on which the juniors who attend the hop are to be excused from classes and to continue until the last echo of the tolling of the midnight curfew has died away. Picnicing unrestrained will be rampant upon the green, boating will be the proper diversion between cats, vaudeville with some real blackface comedy on tap will be a source of trouble in both the afternoon and evening in the Casino. A ball game between the "Wets" and the "Drys" in the afternoon will be brought into action to excite the fans, while the dance itself, which is offered in addition to the numerous pleasures, will form a delightful finale to a day of unrestrained pleasure for the third year people.

The dance hall will not be crowded by reason of the new floor space additional to that used last year which has been added by reconstructing the whole pavilion into a slippery floor.

It is perfectly safe to exploit the fact that the Junior Hop will be some affair. Neither rain nor a volcanic disturbance will be sufficient to shake loose the committee from making the picnic-dance a whizzer beyond competition.

In order that only those who attend the dance will be excused from classes in the afternoon, the committee has devised a scheme whereby each person who passes in his ticket at the dance may write his name and that of his lady companion on the back of the ticket and thereby entitle himself to an exemption from an absent mark in the deserted class. Such procedure is absolutely necessary for excuse. Tickets are for sale by almost any junior at the price of $1.
