1915 GATHERING OF THE CLANS IN CALIFORNIA

Many Fraternities Planning to Hold
Conclaves During Exposition
Year.

Berkeley, Sept. 22.—At least twelve national conventions of men's college fraternities will be held in Berkeley and San Francisco during the Exposition year. Out of the remaining number of the twenty-eight organizations represented on the California campus, twelve others have stated that their conventions which will be held this year will vote for San Francisco in 1915.

The earliest date definitely set is that for the Phi Gamma Delta gathering in June, 1915. Sigma Chi follows in July, and Delta Chi, Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Nu will all hold their conventions during August. Delta Kappa Epsilon will convene in November of the same year.

Five of the organizations which have definitely decided to go to the Pacific coast in 1915 have not yet set definite dates for their meetings. Alpha Delta Phi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi and Theta Xi will set their dates during the next year.

Of the Greek letter societies which will probably meet here in 1915, Acacia is now holding its 1913 convention in Madison, Wisconsin, and will probably decide on a meeting place during the present week. Alpha Sigma Phi will also decide the matter at its September meeting in New York. Beta Theta Pi and Chi Psi will in all probability decide on San Francisco as the Convention City at this year's national gathering.

At its 1913 convention in New York City Chi Phi delegates will discuss the question and Kappa Alpha representatives will finally determine on the subject at Annapolis in December. Kappa Sigma has not announced its 1915 meeting place, but the coast delegates are assured of a San Francisco decision.

Phi Kappa Sigma, Psi Upsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon will debate the matter at their conventions during the year. Theta Delta Chi and Zeta Psi will decide the convention question at their 1914 national gathering.

Delta Tau Omega, Phi Kappa Psi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon will be unable to meet here at that time as their conventions are held on even numbered years.

Besides the conventions of men's organizations, several national gatherings of sororities are scheduled to meet in San Francisco in 1915.

MEN'S MEETING IN TEMPLE

Avery and Ewing on Program for Talks at First Meeting.

The first men's meeting of the year, held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Temple theater. Chancellor Avery and Secretary Ewing are on the program for short talks, and special music by a male quartette will be furnished. All men are invited, and as this is the first meeting of the year it will be worth while to get the habit early.

We're Going Some This Week

In fact, we've got all the young men in town on the run, headed our way to attend

THE L SYSTEM

College and High School Week

This week we are holding an initial introduction of the new Fall and Winter styles of THE L SYSTEM Clothes for Young Gentlemen—Come—Join the happy crowd—See why the clothes we are featuring lock arms with the young men.

They'll interest you, because they echo your style desires. Being shaped to fit lithe figures and to set jauntily on the shoulders of the young college or business man, they are certain to appeal to you personally.

We feel safe in saying that never in your life have you seen such finely fashioned and smoothly finished garments. You'll find a lot of pleasure in trying them on. We'll find a lot of pleasure in having you do so.
