classes which takes the form of a class rush. Two years ago the famous cowbells were the bone of contention; thirteen of them were strung across the athletic field and the classes rushed against each other in an effort to pull the bells to their respective sides of the line. It was some "rush." Last year the sophomores defended a flag on a flagstaff against the onslaught of the youngsters—for a few minutes. What the mechanical device will be this year for raising fighting blood has not been settled, but it is certain that it will be a bruise producer.

An Extraordinary Sale of
Men's $3.00 Roelof
Black Derby Hats for

$1.65

All of the Hats offered in this sale are of GENUINE HENRY H. ROELOF (Philadelphia) make. They are the real "Roelof Smile" Hats.

They do not bear the Roelof name, however—because the Roelof factory will not put their name in any hat that is to retail for less than $3.00. We bought all of the surplus fall stock of the famous Smile Hat—with the understanding that we would sell them at any price we chose, hence no name is in them. But THEY GO OUT OF OUR STORE WITH THE USUAL RUDGE & GUENZEL COMPANY GUARANTEE OF PERFECT SATISFACTION—OR MONEY BACK.

The Roelof Smile Hat has a NATIONAL REPUTATION. In this lot are all of the new 1913 fall shapes—in all sizes. Every man should have a NICE DERBY HAT—even though he may wear a soft hat on most occasions. THE DERBY HAT IS A SEMI-DRESS HAT—and YOU need one. This opportunity to get one of the best known makes of absolutely correct model AT ALMOST HALF PRICE—AT THE OPENING OF A SEASON—is an opportune one.
