Pages From Past History

September 30th, 1905

A big mass meeting of all students was held in Memorial Hall to arouse enthusiasm for the Glee and Mandolin clubs, which were threatened with extinction.

1904.

Rooting squads were organized at football practice.

Trouble was brewing between the freshmen and sophomore classes and indications pointed to a big class scrap.

1903.

The varsity, under Coach Booth, with Benedict at halfback and Bender at quarter, cleaned up Grand Island, 64 to 0.

W. J. Bryan spoke at convocation concerning Leo XIII.

1902.

Fraternity men paraded through town accompanied by a brass band and torches, much to the disgust of the citizens.

Visiting at the Phi Kappa Psi House: Earl Cline, Geneva, Neb.; Frank Schwake, Nebraska City; E. C. McConnell, Omaha; Morton Steinhart, Nebraska City; Ray Killian, Wahoo; Walter Kenner, Omaha.

The normal training girls expected to be on the athletic field early this morning to try their skill at field hockey, but were prevented by the rain. Their ardor is only slightly dampened, however, and they plan a lively game for tomorrow.

Miss Graham, Dean of Women, will talk to the girls at the Tuesday vesper service of the Y. W. C. A. on "The All-around Nebraska Girl." The meeting will be at 5 in the Temple association room.

Madge Meradith of York is visiting at the Delta Gamma house.

Mildred Daniels of Ord, Neb., and Evelyn Dobbs of Beatrice, Neb., spent the week-end at the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Frances Chatburn, '13, of Beaver City called at the Achoth house this week.

Louise Kilpatrick of Ashland, Neb., spent the week-end at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Miss Fay Stayner, a student here last year, spent Friday and Saturday with Lincoln friends. She is teaching in Columbus High School.

If we just said---"Clothes for Men," we wouldn't have said any more than every other clothier says all time.

That's why we say "Specialists to College Men", for we know we must "be there" in order to make it stick. We say "we're there and over."

Those natty rain coats at $10.00 are making lots of fellows that have bought elsewhere, wonder why it is---

THE CAFETERIA
OF THE UNIVERSITY Y. M. C. A.

This is not an ordinary boarding place where the chief aim is to make a fair profit for the proprietor. It is not ordinary in that it is run by the students for the students. The best food is bought and is prepared in the best manner. The prices are based on the cost of the food and cost of preparation. Arrangements have been made to purchase the provisions at the very lowest possible prices for the quality required. The employees are well paid but only because they are capable of rendering the most efficient service. The Students Cafeteria run in the interests of the students.
