OLYMPICS TO BE SATURDAY

FRESHMAN—SOPHOMORE SCRAP SCHEDULED FOR MORNING OF AGGIE GAME.

CLASS RUSH THE BIG EVENT

Medicine Ball Scrap for Fifty Picked Men—May Check Names of Side-line Athletes.

The responsibility of piloting their respective classes through the annual class scrap is the first that will fall upon the newly elected presidents of the lower classes. For the date of the annual Olympics has been set for the coming Saturday, October 11. This announcement was made at the freshman convocation, so the new class has had time to think over the error of their ways and plans for their immediate betterment in the future.

The Olympics, following tradition, will consist of several tests of the skill and strength of picked men, followed by the big scrap in which every man takes part—and woe be unto those who stay away. Final plans have not been announced, but it is understood that there will be wrestling and boxing matches to start the day, these to come either early in the morning or as space fillers during the events.

Medicine Ball Rush.

A new departure in the way of a picked scrap, taking the place of the football game of last year, will be a medicine ball scrap. A good-sized medicine ball will be placed on top of a pole, about which twenty-five of the picked men of each class will be turned loose to do their worst. The game will consist in getting the ball over a line—and although it may sound easy on paper, the determined opposition of twenty-five men playing football without rules will make the outcome doubtful.

Following this, and probably preceded by a boxing match to give time for the men to rest up will come the class rush. The rush is the distinctive part of the Olympics, the other events being important but secondary. It is a man-to-man scrap, with unnecessary roughness eliminated, and during the several minutes of its duration each fighter will be tested to his utmost. Somewhat after the plan of last year, but with the weak points of that plan left out, this year's rush will be a recordbreaker for enthusiasm, both on the part of the spectators and those taking part.

Details of the Class Rush.

The classes will be lined up opposing each other, separated by about twenty yards and turned loose at a signal. At the end of a certain time the rush will be conceded to the class which has succeeded in holding down the greatest number of its opponents, after pushing them back of their own line. Last year a man pushed over his line was ruled out of the contest.

SPHARO STYX COMPETITION NEXT SATURDAY MORNING

Dramatic Ability Alone Considered—Sixty Places Open—All Good Ones.

The formal announcement of competition for places in the cast of the minstrel and vaudeville show, soon to be produced by Spharo Styx, was made Monday. This competition is open to both the men and women of the university, and will be held in the Temple Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock. While the production is to be a minstrel and vaudeville show the tryouts Saturday morning will not be a test of the competitors vocal ability but wholly of their dramatic capabilities. Suggested selections may be secured at the Daily Nebraskan. However if any of the successful have good voices they will be given a chance to use them later when rehearsals begin.

A matter of no small importance to the co-eds, and the fellows as well, is the fact that there are about twenty-five "fem" parts. Although the number of these parts is large yet they are all good ones and any girl who is successful may consider herself lucky. The parts are original and will afford great opportunities for talented young women.

Regarding the men's parts there is an excellent chance for the blossoming thespian. There are about thirty well balanced places open and the fortunate will have no need of professional jealousy. Although a large number of the freshies and sophs will be busy Saturday morning with the Olympics they need have no fear of losing the chance to compete as time cards will be given to any one who will be engaged in mortal combat.

GIRLS WILL RALLY THIS MORNING IN MEMORIAL HALL

Prominent Women of University Will Make Rousing Speeches.

The first football rally of the year will be the "All University Girls' Football Rally" this morning at 11:30 in Memorial Hall. The Black Masque girls who several years ago arranged to have the girls' section at the games and always boost for the team, are in charge of the meeting today.

It has been arranged to have the band out in full force and have football songs and speeches to arouse the enthusiasm of all university girls. The advisability of providing a gli rooting section will be considered. Miss Gittings, Mrs. Raymond, Gladys Bunt and Guy Reed are among the speakers of the hour. Every wide-awake girl in school should be present to catch the football spirit and prepare to be a live booster during the coming season.

Lillian Schrum of Omaha spent the week-end at the Acbath house.

ORDER OF SPEAKING GIVEN OUT FOR DEBATE COMPETITION

Date as Yet Not Absolutely Certain Although probably Wednesday Afternoon and Evening.

The date of the preliminary debate to select the members of the seminary of fifteen who will be the squad from which is taken the university debating team was not definitely settled last evening. The number of candidates has grown so large that it was found necessary to make two divisions, probably the time being Wednesday afternoon and evening, place to be announced later.

Fourteen selected the affirmative and ten the negative of the question which is that of the Central Debating League: "That immigration into this country should be further restricted by means of a literacy test."

"NOT ALL ON FATHER"

UNIVERSITY EMPLOYMENT BUREAU SHOWS THAT MANY HELPED THEMSELVES LAST YEAR

$104,000.00 TOTAL SUM EARNED

This Does Not Take In What Women Students Received For Their Work Which Also Is Larger

A great many people think that a young man at school is an expensive article, and it must be admitted that in certain cases this is a hard fact, yet statistics show that there are more men self-supporting, or partially so, than the average observer of college life and affairs would realize.

In Nebraska State University recent statistics show that:

Eighteen men earned the equivalent to $1581.70 washing dishes.
Fifty-four men earned the equivalent to $3753.20 tending furnaces.
Ninety-six men earned the equivalent to $7922.90 waiting tables.
Eighteen men earned the equivalent to $515.50 by house work.
Fifty-three men earned the equivalent to $2329.52 by odd jobs.

This does not take into consideration the amounts earned by students who clerk in stores, play in musical organizations, or those doing assistant teaching. Taking these amounts into consideration we have an estimated sum of $104,000.00 actually earned by students attending the university.

What is true of Nebraska is no doubt true in all other state institutions, and also to some extent in the small colleges throughout the country. These figures do not include the sums earned by the women students which in a year's time will total a surprising amount.

The University of Nebraska maintains a separate and distinct department which looks after worthy students who want work. Positions are secured and men are sent to fill them. The department is open at all times and receives calls for student help. It experiences no trouble in finding a man to fill the job as there are always many men anxious to help themselves and thus relieve "Father at home on the farm," or wherever he may be striving to obtain the wherewithal to keep his boy in school. The Employment Bureau is associated with the University Y. M. C. A., in the Temple building and its services are free both to employer and student. Already this year quite a few men have been supplied with permanent and temporary jobs. Work of all kinds is taken care of and calls are very much appreciated.

Dr. Fletcher L. Wharton will speak at the Association Vesper Service Tuesday afternoon at five in the Y. M. C. A., rooms. Mrs. Edith Lucile Robbins will sing.
