

BIBLE STUDY IS ESSENTIAL

Alexander Tells of Its Practical Use Before Y. M. C. A. Meeting Last Night—Third of Weekly Meetings.

"If Christianity is to maintain its position—predominant in the world's culture and civilization—those who profess it must analyze its philosophy and teaching, study its history, and enrich its contents with their experience."

In these words Prof. H. B. Alexander of the department of philosophy expressed the need and use of Bible study, addressing the University Y. M. C. A. meeting in music hall last evening. His address was the third of a series of Thursday evening lectures by the Y. M. C. A.

The Bible as essential to our appreciation of modern world expressions and doctrines was dwelt upon. Professor Alexander showed that a study of its truths helped in an understanding not only of religious thought and ethical system, but of poetry, literature and political fabric and social life.

A fourth meeting will be held in the Temple next Thursday, subject to be announced later.

Four Class Hats at Illinois.

Every class at Illinois is now distinguished by a particular style of head-gear. This is the first year that the sophomores have chosen a hat for their class emblem.

Freshman green "postage stamps" are of the ordinary college freshman styled caps, and are worn by all the male members of that class. The sophomores are wearing little gray slouch hats.

The junior cap is of the latest style, being made of heavy blue worsted with a large "15" embroidered in gray silk upon its front. The senior class departed from the regulation hat style, which was almost antediluvian, and has for its emblem a hat of the latest and most approved fashion.

OBERLIN FROSH PUMMEL SOPHS.

Nebraska Second-Year Men May Take Lesson in Force of Numbers.

The Oberlin freshmen, in their annual class scrap, came out victorious. The freshmen numbered 143, while only 96 sophomores turned out. At this school the implements of torture were ordinary wooden paddles. The participants wore football trousers and padded jerseys.

This ought to be an example to the sops here. In order that the freshmen may receive their due punishment the sophomores must turn out in full force. Else the paddle may be reverted to at Nebraska.
