BIG FIGHT COMES TODAY.
 Continued from page 1

those whose dictates of conscience are so scrupulous as to prevent their attempting to injure a respected human fellow-being by dragging him hence and sitting quietly on him for a few uncomfortable moments, or whose code of principles denies them the privilege of doing anything that mother would not consider a safe risk for her dutiful son, will be published after the games for the perusal of the respecting braves and admiring girls. All await with bated breath the determination of the rightful title to the proverbial spoils.

Campus Notes

Important.

A 15-cent supper for all the girls of the different committees will be held in the association rooms on Wednesday, the 15th. Leave your name at the association rooms before Tuesday evening if you can come. Entertainment and general good time assured.

Girls Attend Game En Masse.

All girls who wish to go in a body to the game this afternoon meet Miss Gittings in the gymnasium promptly at 2:30. Come arrayed with plenty of scarlet and cream colors and lots of enthusiasm.

German Dramatic Club tryouts Monday at 8 o'clock p. m. in Faculty Hall.

Professor Pugsley will deliver an illustrated lecture on European Agriculture before the Ag Club tonight at the Agriculture Hall at the Farm. No one interested in agriculture should fail to hear this lecture.

Frosh Girls Wear Green.

Green caps are not the only manner of outwardly displaying class loyalty. Watch for the freshman girls at the game this afternoon.

Secretary Ewing of the University Y. M. C. A. was pleasantly surprised the other day, when a check for $10 post-marked Barcelona, Spain, came to his desk. The thoughtful individual was John R. Rippy, formerly of the University association cabinet. It is this kind of loyalty to alma mater, her various institutions, and student enterprises that will do much to make the college life effective. Such interest as shown by Mr. Rippy is always appreciated.

KANSAS AGGIES ARE NEXT.

Elwell, Irwin, Grosse, Bailus, Gelwick, Hugg and Shields will all probably get into the melee.

Light Practice Yesterday.

Following the heavy scrimmages of Wednesday and Thursday Coach Stiehm gave the men but a light workout last evening. It consisted of signal practice and was just severe enough to limber the fellows up nightly. This week's gruelling practices have put them in excellent condition for the fray, and they are going to play a great game of football.

Everybody out to cheer them on to victory.

Learn the Tango Right.

The Varsity Crusaders have made arrangements with Professor and Mrs. Kehl to teach the proper mode of dancing at the party Saturday evening at the Woman's building. No extra charge will be made.—Daily Cardinal.
