

UNIVERSITY MEN!

A NEW SUIT OR OVERCOAT
FOR THAT TRIP TO KANSAS

“The Fighting Ground of the Jayhawker”

On the Side-lines or in the Game you will be “putting it over,” if you're there with one of our

SPECIALIZED SUITS OR OVERCOATS

For instance, the new Balmacon Overcoat the Yale and Harvard men are crazy about. They are here for you in smart Scotches. This is only one of the many overcoats of Nebraska's Greatest Stock. Come and see the wonderful values we are showing at $10.00, $15.00, $17.00, $25.00, $30.00 and higher up

Certainly Society Brand and Sampeck--the University Man's Preference.

MAYER BROS. CO.

1007-19 O Street

“The Store Ahead”

Lincoln, Nebraska

LITERARY REVIEW PUBLISHED WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Professors Frye, Buck, and Alexander Editing New University Quarterly —First Issue Out Yesterday.

The first number of the Mid-West quarterly, a literary and critical review recently launched by the University, made its appearance yesterday. It is edited by Professor Frye with the assistance of Professors Alexander and Buck. The price is $2 per year or 50 cents a copy. Sample copies may be secured by those interested at the registrar's office or at the office of the editor.

NEBRASKA TO HAVE PROMINENT PLACE IN N. C. C.

National Conservation Congress Program and List of Delegates Both Contain Uni. Men.

Nebraska will be well represented at the National Conservation congress to be held in Washington, D. C., during the coming week. Five delegates will be present to take part in the program: Chancellor Avery, Dean Burnett, Regent Copeland, A. E. Sheldon, and Doctor Condra.

On the evening of November 17 Doctor Condra will exhibit a moving picture film showing Nebraska industries. The purpose of this illustrated lecture is to demonstrate the work of the Nebraska commission. Dr. Sheldon is to present a paper: “Legislative Reference Bureau in Relation to State Development.”

Friday, November 14, Alpha Theta Chi house party. Faculty Women's dinner, Lincoln. Saturday, November 15, Girls' club Kensington, Temple.

Co-ed Declared Winner in Last Game of Girls' Tournament— Lottie Savage Will Challenge.

The finals of the girls' tennis tournament were played yesterday afternoon between Verna Tinkelpaugh and Hazel Melick and by a score of 6-1, 6-3 Miss Tinkelpaug was declared college champion. The game was the nineteenth of the series and an exceptionally fast one from start to finish. Miss Harris acted as umpire. Lottie Savage, former college and city champion, has challenged the winner and the game will be played this week.

Miss Bertha Gooden and Mr. P. P. Proudfit, both graduates of the University of Nebraska, were recently married in this city. Miss Gooden is a member of the Kappa Alpha sorority and Mr. Proudfit a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Harvard is paying $35,000 a year for its coaches. It is estimated, however, that the Cambridge students take twice as much annually from bolt Yale betters, so Harvard should worry.—Exchange.

THE FOLSOM BAKERY AND CAFE

1325 -- 1331 N STREET

Asks a share of your patronage. We are equipped to serve you and serve you right. A trial is all we ask.

THE FOLSOM BAKERY AND CAFE

1325 -- 1331 N STREET

WE ARE GOING TO

The Huffman's General Supply House

For our SCHOOL and OFFICE Supplies

We get more for our money at

208 South 11th Street -- -- Lincoln

B6575

LINCOLN CLEANING AND DYE WORKS

320-322 SO. 11TH ST.

The attendance of the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was estimated at 18,000, the largest on record at Camp Randall.—Exchange.

After the Minnesota victory over Wisconsin, no more was heard of the petition from the alumni requesting Coach Williams' resignation.—Ex.