HERE'S TO YOU.

Eds and co-eds, professors and lab-assistants, grinds and sluffers—we wish you all the best of vacations. We would even say Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year, in words that would be new but would give the same message. Such words have yet to be found, so we repeat.—A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

With this edition The Nebraskan suspends publication until after the holidays. Saturday before vacation is no day for advertisements nor is Friday a day when the scribe will scribble. Better still, there will be but few of the Old Guard left on the campus Saturday morning. So here's to you.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. McCulley of the Emmanuel Methodist church, 629 North Fifteenth street, will be at home to any students on Christmas night who may be in Lincoln during the holidays. A pleasant evening is being arranged and all students are urged to attend.
