THEIR HEALTH IN DANGER

MEMBERS OF SPHARO STYX FUN FROLIC CAST ARE WORRIED BY OVERWORK.

TEN HOURS A DAY IN REHERSAL

One O'Clock to ten p. m. the Limits of Time Demanded by John T. Prince, Director.

According to the statement made by a prominent member of the cast yesterday, Spharo Styx will exhibit a lot of skeletons Saturday night January 17, when they produce their annual Fun-Folie at the Oliver theatre. Asked for the reason for his statement, he gave the incessant demand for rehearsal time made by John T. Prince jr. director of the show. Ten hours a day is the average time which is occupied by work on this show and Prince admits that several features are even giving more time than that to the affair.

The minstrel circle has been putting the finishing touches on the tuneful musical numbers which will form a strong part of their section of the Fun-Folie. Several features are in preparation said to be distinctly novel and exciting.

Exchange tickets are on sale now. These may be reserved at the Oliver theatre Monday morning Jan. 13. Organizations should reserve blocks of seats Saturday morning at ten o'clock, these reservations holding till Wednesday Jan. 15, at six o'clock.

Committee Appointed to Investigate the Need of a Student Body

In accordance with the plans proposed by the Girls' club last night, a committee of five, three men and two women was appointed today by the presidents of the three representative student organizations. Chan Trimble, William Kavan and Sam Griffin were appointed from the Innocents, the Senior society, and Bess Rogers and Elizabeth Hyde from the Black Masques and Girls club respectively.

This committee is purely executive in its purpose and will ascertain as much as possible concerning the practicability and workings of the student upon council. Correspondence will be started with other schools and their systems of organization and management. They will also endeavor to find out whether or not there is a definite need for the council, and just how much authority they will need to assume to become most effective.

CONGRATULATIONS AROUND AMONG MILITARY BALL GOERS

Will be First Dance Given Under "Open" Auspices, and Limited Number of Tickets Sold.

Terpsichorean fanatics who have already secured an "Open Sesame" to an evening's delight at the Military ball at the Lincoln tomorrow eve, are congratulating one another upon it. And why? Well, "Old Terp" himself in all his glory and with all his retinue will be there at the express invitation of the authorities who yesterday struck the ban from that fascinating tango.

While the hop is now financially safe a limited number of passes are on hand "First there, first served" will still be obtained. While these are in order. The few remaining tickets may be had of Kirk Fowler, Joe Johnson or may be obtained in the office of the commandant.

SEND BILL TO THE WRONG PARTY

Taxi-cab Company Plays Crude Joke on Ardent Fusser—Girl Couldn't Appreciate Joke.

The joke concerning the supreme audacity of the taxicab companies is as old as the time-honored chestnut about mother-in-laws, but to at least one Nebraska student it is no longer a joking matter. This particular young man was yesterday exhibiting a face which would do credit to the most woe-begone melodramatic heroine who ever allowed her eye juice to streak down her painted and powdered cheeks. His tale of woe ran thusly:

On the night of the freshman hop he hired a taxi-cab in which to conduct Emmeline and self to and from the ball room. Emmeline was much impressed by this show of extravagance. Everything was lovely until yesterday, when the young man in question was notified by the fair lady that the taxicab company had presented its bill to her. She thought it mighty strange that she should be required to pay this part of the expenses. The young man thought so too, and he told the company so, but that didn't relieve him of the responsibility of explaining things to Emmeline.

LECTURES ON FARM PROBLEMS

Two Ag. Professors Leave Next Week to Speak at Oklahoma College and Springfield.

Two of the professors at the University State farm will leave the city next week to speak before Agricultural associations of neighboring states. Professor L. W. Chase is scheduled to give a lecture on pit silos at the Winter Short course of the Oklahoma Agricultural college at Stillwater on Thursday, January 15th. Dean Burnett is scheduled to speak before the Illinois Live Stock Breeders' association at Springfield, Ill., on Wednesday, January 14th.

PICTURES TAKEN BY CONDRA FOR BEST BABIES SHOW

Dr. Condra and his moving picture machine are in the lime light this week. Mothers are continually carrying their babies to the third floor of University hall in order to have the "best baby in the world" snapped for the "Nebraska Better Babies Show," which is to be held sometime in the future. The great interest shown in the baby show at the state fair last fall has encouraged such men as Dr. Condra, who is intensely interested, to carry the coming show to the height of success. He is frequently put in a very embarrassing position when he is asked, don't you think this is the prettiest and most perfect baby you have ever seen?"

Examination to Fill Philippine Teaching Vacancies on March 1

An examination is announced for March 11-12, 1914, in all of the principal cities of the United States, for securing a list of eligibles from which to make selections to fill positions in the Philippine teaching service. The places to which those appointed will be assigned are: For men, supervisors of school districts, teachers of English, mathematics, history, science, manual training, agriculture; for women, teachers of domestic science and home economy.

A distinguished educator from Columbia University who recently visited the Philippines says, in speaking of the schools: "I have visited many countries and studied the educational systems in all of them, but in no part of the world is there a system so perfectly adapted to social conditions of the people as in this country. The system here might well serve as a model to the rest of the world from the standpoint of adaptation to the needs of a country."

This is a field which requires the services of young people of superior qualifications, excellent character and good preparation. For the right kind of men there are excellent opportunities to take a large part in the solution of some of the problems now confronting this country and at the same time gain an experience and training of great value. Graduates of colleges and normal schools and of polytechnic and agricultural schools are desired. Teachers with successful experience are eligible.

The entrance salary of the majority of male appointees is $1,200 per annum and expenses to the islands paid by the government, with eligibility for promotion up to $2,000 as teacher and up to $3,000 as superintendent.

This is the last examination of the present school year and those appointed will be expected to sail for Manila

REMOVE BAN FROM DANCES

NEW DANCES WILL BE PERMITTED AT UNIVERSITY PARTIES IS RULING.

EXTREME STYLES STILL BARRED

Committee on Organizations Recognizes Tango and Oother Dances if not Overdone—Takes Immediate Effect.

In a meeting of the committee on student organizations yesterday evening, it was decided that "the restrictions regarding what kind of dances would be permitted at university parties should be withdrawn." This removes the ban which has been in effect on the new and fancy dances since the beginning of the semester, and will go into effect immediately. The first party to be affected by this ruling—or lack of ruling—will be the Military ball, which will be held Friday night.

The kind of dancing that will be permitted on the floor will by virtue of this action depend upon the decision of the committee responsible for the dance. However, with the advent of the new dances into all classes of society, it is probable that the Tango, Hesitation, One-step, Castle Walk and other forms of the dance will become popular at once. The two week vacation permitted ample time for the introduction of the intricacies of the dances to such of the university pleasure seekers as were not already initiated.

Extreme dancing frowned down.

One restriction yet rests upon the dancing. The restriction as to the kind of dances allowed was removed. But the restriction of the manner of dancing still holds. The old-fashioned but graceful waltz position, together with the modified position assumed in the Boston—the girl's right forearm resting on the man's left fore-arm—will be the correct positions to assume, no matter what the dance. Furthermore, the general positions of the two dancers must conform to the modified forms of the dance. Thine extreme in any style of dance will be a violation of the freedom which is extended under the new ruling.

This action is in line with the policy which is being followed out by most of the larger universities, according to Miss Graham. At the first, when the new dances were virtually on trial, the faculty and student governing bodies legislated against them. In the mean time, the student sentiment on the matter was tested out, and gradually the dances which seemed to have come to stay were admitted as correct. In all cases, however, there is a feeling that university dances should be of a high standard, and anything extreme usually under the ban.
