 DISAPPEAR IN NUMBERS

Unusual Activity of Light-Fingered Gentlemen Increases as Semester Exams Approach.

An epidemic of crime in the guise of light-fingeredness has been sweeping the campus during the last week.
 Possibly "borrowing" would be a better term to use, in a great many cases.
 However, repeated complaints have been turned in at the Nebraskan office of losing sums of money, in one case the amount was over thirty dollars, and of watches.

Books also seem to possess great attractiveness for the deft-fingered gentry. A great many books, both text and notebooks, have disappeared in the shuffle. Some of these books were doubtless borrowed in good faith but they have remained "borrowed" and it certainly looks like purloining to the owners. The loss of notebooks is particularly felt as in them are contained the notes of the entire semester and just now before exams these are in great demand.

The old refrain "Look out for Pickpockets" will serve in good stead until the kleptomaniac bug takes its flight from the campus.

Eastern Universities
 Deplore Extravagance
 Of Wealthy Students

Has the University of Nebraska as many spendthrift students as the eastern institutions? It would hardly seem so, for a very few Nebraska men spend more than 700 dollars which, according to President M. W. Stryker of Hamilton, is the maximum amount which any institution ought to allow any student to spend in a year. At a recent alumni dinner President Stryker issued the following statement.

"If I had my way I would put out of college every boy who spends more than $700 a year. He is doing himself no good and is a bad example to others."

In these days of a tightening of money many of the eastern schools and colleges are forced to realize the absurd expenditures which the modern young American is forced to make in his search for "culchah." Hamilton college has produced figures to show that $513 a year is sufficient to take a boy thru college.

In Other Days

1902.

Chancellor Andrews tells of his interesting observations in his recent trip to the coast.

1904.

Members of the sophomore class carry off the the chairman of the freshman hop committee, thus delaying the preparations for the lass hop.

Dr. Benton, the first chancellor of the university, addresses a large crowd of students at convocation.

1905.

Nebraska 50—Wesleyan 17.
 Ex-Governor Furnas addresses the students.

The girls will take basketball trips and play Minnesota and Missouri.

1910.

Nebraska ranks sixth among the state universities of the country in enrollment.

1912.

The "Amazons," a farce comedy, by Pinero, was presented by the Dramatic club.

1913.

The Regents declare for campus removal. They recommend, at the Neb. alumni banquet, that all university activities and departments be united upon a single campus, including every college except the College of medicine.

Agitate Suffrage in Other Schools.

While the advisability of establishing a university suffrage organization is being discussed here, it is noticed that it is an item of interest in other universities and is being agitated by prominent people. State Senator A.
 F. Vandeventer of Oklahoma said:

"Women do ninety per cent of the teaching; seventy-five per cent of the church going; and the number in the penitentiary is so small that I have been unable to figure out the per cent. Therefore I do not see why they should not do fifty per cent of the voting."

Oglethorpe university is to be refounded and rebuilt in Atlanta, Ga., after a lapse of more than forty years.
 One hundred of Atlanta's most substantial business men, in a meeting held in the chamber of congress there, so decided.—Ex.

Faculty Women Entertain.

The wives of the university professors entertained their husbands at an informal faculty gathering Wednesday evening. The women met in the afternoon, holding a reception among themselves until the gentlemen appeared. A tasty supper prepared by the university cafeteria was then served, following which several extemporaneous toasts were delivered.
