

INVALID'S COUGH FOUND IN NEBRASKA HALL

Evidence of a Needed Rest Found in the Home of the Forestry and Botany Departments.

The mystery of the cough in Nebraska Hall is causing many curious students moments of anxiety. It first appeared yesterday morning and since then has obtained more than ordinary notoriety.

What is it for? How did it get there? How long is it going to stay? These are a few of the many questions which have been asked over and over again.

Many guesses and wagers have been made regarding the particular function of this household article within the sacred corridors of Nebraska Hall and there is a divided opinion as to whether it is meant for the rest and recreation of the janitor, the students or some of the professors. Coming at this period of relaxation after examinations, it is particularly advantageous and there may be some conflict for first rights.

At any rate there is a mystery attached to the whole affair. Both the Botany and the Forestry Departments disclaim any property right in the article, but they smile when they say it, which gives conclusive evidence of a joke at the bottom of the story.

CANNOT EXCEED THE LIMIT.

National Bank Stock in Reserve Must Not Be Over 6 Per Cent.

Washington.—It has been made known that the federal reserve organization committee has decided that no bank shall be allowed to take stock in the reserve bank in its district amounting to more than 6 per cent of its capital and surplus. The law clearly states that a national bank cannot take less than 6 per cent, but it is not so plain that there is any limitation on the amount above 6 per cent which might be subscribed. The organization committee, however, decided 6 per cent from anyone would be sufficient.

Boys' "Pig Clubs" for the South.

Washington—Organization of "Boys' Pig Clubs" in the southern states is the latest step taken by the department of agriculture as a means of reducing the high cost of living. The department is endeavoring to interest the young southern farmer in the breeding of good hogs, the object being to raise at least enough pork for home consumption, and, if possible, a surplus for the market.

Celebrate Emperor's Birthday.

Berlin.—Emperor William celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday Tuesday, hale and vigorous in body and mind and able still, as was shown by his recent woodchopping exploits, to undertake the physical work of a man in the prime of life. All classes of his subjects joined in observing the day, celebrations being held by university and technical school students, by academies of arts and sciences, by army and navy officers, civic organizations and by municipalities and veteran associations throughout the empire.

JUNIOR PROM MAKES HIT WITH DANCING FUSSERS

town young ladies. Not a few were those who were making their initial appearance before the formal set. But almost everybody knew everybody else, and all went "merry as a marriage bell."

The new dances have "passed the National Board of Censorship." Miss Graham was satisfied. Of course, a few over-enthusiastic devotees of Madame Tango were requested to "slow down a bit"—but they were few. Several "experts" gave graceful presentations of the very latest in athletic dancing, which was very generally appreciated. But the majority contented themselves with a conservative tango or "castle walk," with a rare waltz or two-step.

There was but one criticism of the party—the punch. Blame must not be laid for the poor quality of the refreshments on the committee. They are forced to take and pay for whatever the Lincoln Hotel sees fit to furnish.

Financially there can be no criticism. The dance wiped out the existing forty-dollar class debt and left a small balance besides. We would say, all in all, that the Junior Prom was a very good party and that much credit is due the committee in charge.

SOPHOMORES ARE SUSPENDED

Stanford Men Punished for Tubbing Freshmen.

Stanford seems to be on the point of abolishing another sacred tradition. Twelve sophomores were recently suspended for various terms because they were active participants in a tubbing party, at which a few freshmen were guests. The action was taken by the student council, the governing body of upper classmen.

Whether this action is aimed against tubbing in general or at this particular event is not stated.—Daily Californian.

"Round-up" Meeting.

The program for the "Round Up" held last Saturday in the University Temple was somewhat changed because A. R. Talbot, Head Consul of the Modern Woodmen of the World, and W. A. Kearns, Physical Director of the City Y. M. C. A., were unable to attend. After lunch Knute Carlson spoke on "Recruiting for the Ministry"; J. P. Bailey, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., spoke second on general Y. M. C. A. topics. W. E. Selleck, a downtown business man, gave a short but impressive devotional talk. About twenty-five young men were there.

Blessed is he who has not exceeded his cut limit, for he shall be deemed worthy of his own grade and shall not suffer the rebuke of the faculty.—Drake Delphic.

If the poetic soul was right who defined dancing as "the poetry of motion," the "tawngo" is our idea of blank verse.—Drake Delphic.
