scholarships to ambitious students. A certificate of such endorsement is placed in the hands of every student whose application for enrollment as a scholarship candidate is accepted. Three scholarships are awarded not for class room proficiency, but for practical work in the summer months or in spare time through the school year. College employment bureaus from Maine to California endorse and recommend this plan as a sure means of meeting college expenses for self-supporting students. The work possesses a dignity and distinction which invariably appeals to the ideals of college men. It is always congenial and eminently satisfactory.

Any self-supporting student can secure full particulars of this scholarship plan without obligation or cost by dropping a postcard at once to The Review of Reviews Scholarship Fund, 30 Irving Place, New York City.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENTS ANNOUNCED

DARK HORSE EXPECTED TO DRIVE UP LATE.

POLITICS GETTING WARM

Reese and Baumann Are Out for the Leadership of Their Class—Both Men Are Prominent in University Activities.

The political bosses are again astrid and the powers behind the throne have their heads together. The most advanced campaign is the race for the presidency of the Junior Class. Herbert S. Reese and William H. Baumann have both announced their candidacy for the position and it is rumored that there is a possible dark horse in the field. Class elections will be held on Tuesday, February 17, according to the notice from the Registrar's office.

William H. Baumann of Omaha is a member of the Silver Lynx fraternity and has been active in school affairs. He is registered in the Engineering College and has for two years played on his class football team. Baumann was chairman of the Junior Prom.

Herbert S. Reese is best known by his activity in track work, having made a good record in this line of college sport. He is a member of the Teachers' College and is affiliated with no fraternity organization. Reese was also a member of his class team in his Sophomore year.

Both men have a strong body of supporters and a close contest is expected by their friends.

WE WANT TO KNOW?

We Want to Know Was It Ever Thus?

In the "pre-law building" days one of the fixtures, if not ornaments, of the campus was a large group of law students communing with bulldog pipes at the Eleventh street portals of the University. Rains might rain and snows might snow, but not one of the band allowed his love for Lady Nicotine to wither. Co-eds might dive through the battle smoke times without number, but not one of the valiant group deserted his fellows.

When the new law building was completed, persistent rumor had it that the laws were to have a royally appointed smoking room in a quiet corner of their new habitation. The rumor was published in Lincoln daily papers and wrath fell upon those who had "queered" the smoking room. It was said that the project had been abandoned and that the laws would be forced to smoke outside the portals as of yore.

The sun may shine with a kindly warmth and blossom-scented breezes may caress the cheek of the loungee at the gates, but seldom is the loungee a law student. Academic devotees of the weed look about wondering and ask in whispers, "Where are the law pipe-rushers?"—Contributed.

$700 a Year Too Much for Education.

"If I had my way I would put out of college every boy who spends more than $700 a year. He is doing himself no good and is a bad example to others." These were the words of President Stryker of Hamilton at a recent alumni dinner. College authorities at Hamilton have produced figures showing that $513 a year is sufficient to take a boy through college.—The Daily Californian.

STUDENTS FIND WEATHER KIOSK HARD PROBLEM

Latin, Greek, Mathematics and Law Not the Only Perplexing Questions.

The government weather bureau kiosk which occupies a conspicuous position before University Hall is referred to frequently by members of the student body. Some amateur weather observers cast a knowing eye upon the record displayed in the kiosk and then turn away making sage remarks about the weather which would make the bureau man shudder and gnash his teeth.

A student observer who stood in wrapt attention before the kiosk yesterday morning explained to another, "You see there's a 'high' in the north and in the northwest. It's warmer up there than it is here." The other student nodded understandingly, but a girl who stood near turned a withering glance of contempt upon the lecturer and his audience and explained that the "high" was a high pressure area and that the air from this area rushed into the low pressure area to the east, carrying lowered temperatures to the country between the high pressure areas in the north and the lower pressure area to the east and south.

"Why don't you register for meteorology?" was the young lady's parting remark, and two amateur weather observers looked thoughtful.
