VOL. XIII. NO. 84

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1914

PRICE 5 CENTS

HUSKERS ON A TOUR

NEBRASKA'S BASKETBALL TEAM
LEAVES FOR NORTHERN TRIP

COACH STEHM UNABLE TO GO

Will Play St. Joseph's College Tonight—Hard Schedule Ahead—
Double-Header With Gophers
—Manager Reed in Charge.

The Cornhusker basket tossers left at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Des Moines. They stopped there last night and early today will leave for Dubuque, Iowa, where they will meet St. Joseph's College tonight.

The men making the trip are Captain Haskell, "Seven" Meyers, Earl Hawkins, Dick Rutherford, Ed Hugg, Warren Howard, Bob Finley, Paul Shields and Milo Hanzlik. Two more men than last year were taken along. This line-up will cause a new interest in the trip. Two weeks ago when Coach Kline's Coyotes took the Huskers to a cleaning, Coach Stehm's five was minus the services of Dick Rutherford. With Rutherford again able to get into the play, things are expected to be different.

The game tonight promises to be a real battle. Hugg will start the game at forward with Captain Haskell. "Seven" Meyers will start at center, but in case the game is laid on ice in the first half it is likely that Finley will finish the game, saving Meyers for the double-header with Minnesota on Friday and Saturday nights. The guard positions will be held down by Hawkins and Rutherford. These men will be relieved by Howard and Hanzlik. Shields will be used as substitute for the forward positions.

Although registration week mused up basketball practice, the big fault—which has been the inability to hang on to the ball—has been remedied. Coach "Jumbo" has been riding them on this point and with apparent success.

Coach Stehm is laid up with a carbunkle on his neck and was unable to accompany the team on their trip. Guy Reed has charge of the tour.

The Nebraskan will print an account of tonight's game in tomorrow's Rag.

There are rumors afloat to the effect that Manager Reed will confer with the Minnesota Athletic Board while in Minneapolis with regard to a Minnesota-Nebraska football game next fall. The department, however, is refusing to give anything out and definite information cannot be obtained.

"TANGO TEA" LATEST NOVATION OF SOCIETY

Imported Dancing Professor to Culture Students in Neglected Art.

Are you going to the "Tango Tea"? Or is it a "The Dansant"? Or, in fact, is there any tea at all—just tango? But the tango, well served, is enough for the most exacting. And they do say there is to be SOME service. An honest-to-goodness professional tango man and his dancing partner have been imported from Omaha to show the boys how it is done.

This is the first venture of its kind at Nebraska, but it is by no means new to the college world. Chicago University is about to start a class in tango instruction. Students have petitioned the faculty to establish the class in lieu of gym work. Practically all the students have signed the petition. The faculty have no objections. In the opinion of the Daily Maroon, the petition will be granted in the near future.

What would you say if, when the University catalogue comes out next spring, you saw an announcement of the newly created Department of the Tango and Allied Dances? Take this as a warning. Perhaps the impossible may not be so impossible after all. But just now it looks as if we must resort to private parties to quench the burning thirst for knowledge. The University is failing to instruct us in the most important single(?) science of today. More money, more time, more energy is spent today on the tango than on all other serious investigations. And yet we have to go to a private school for training. The first class, which will instruct beginners as well as "old heads," will meet in Lindell Hall, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

JUNIOR HOP AT LINDELL SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28

Last Informal of First Semester
Regime Scheduled for Last
Day of Month.

The Junior Hop committee has made its announcement. Like all such bodies, they are very modest in the presentation of the positive merits of their dance. But here it is, the bona fide "dope" on the big event. Judge for yourself:

"As the last dance given under the auspices of the first semester regime, the Junior Hop was announced yesterday as scheduled for February 28, the last day of the month (really, know?) and on Saturday night. The place will be the New Lindell Ball Room, made so famous by the successful Senior Hop recently held there.

"Since the class of 1915 is entirely out of debt through the success of the Junior Prom, every cent taken in will be spent in giving the best informal of the year. Programs will be something out of the ordinary and will be worth keeping as favors. The refreshments are promised by Mr. Johnson of the Lindell as the best that he can furnish and he guarantees that no slip will occur in the quality, such as was experienced at the Lincoln at the Junior Prom. The music will be largely tangos and hesitations, owing to the demand being made by student sentiment for melody of this type.

Tickets will cost $1.25 and one hundred and ten will be issued. The committee has cut the price usually charged for University informals be-

KOSMET KLUB TRYOUTS HELD LAST NIGHT

Number of Contestants Aspiring to Positions in Musical Comedy.

The first tryout of the Kosmet Klub was held last night. A large number of people were out to show their talent and gain the coveted places. Each person was given five minutes to enable them to give their singing or speaking parts and if, in the eyes of the committee, they showed the required talent, they were given more time. The judges were members of the Klub. In their hands will rest the decision as to who will receive the positions. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the members of the Klub met and listened to the music that has been submitted for the opera. People who have not registered and who wish to try out should register some time today at the desk in the Temple, or come to the theatre tonight. There are plenty of singing parts open and those who think they have ability in this direction should report at once. The Klub will meet on Sunday to decide what persons have secured places. The decisions will be announced early next week.

The faculty at the University of Minnesota are considering the adoption of the "quarter system" in the agricultural college. By this plan the school year is divided into four quarters instead of halves. Examinations are to be given at the end of each quarter. This system is considered especially desirable for agricultural students, who find it difficult to return to school as early as September, and for those earning their expenses.—The I. C. S. Student.

Y. W. C. A. ELECTION

BANNER MEETING MOST SUCCESSFUL HELD IN YEARS.

MISS BENNETT PRESIDENT

New Officers to Be Installed in the Spring—Unable to Give Parade on Account of Large Numbers Present.

The Y. W. C. A. membership meeting and election, held in the University Temple last evening, was one of the most successful in years. Miss Ester Bennett was elected president; Miss Genevieve Lowry, vice president; Miss Freda Stuff, secretary, and Miss Marguerite Farley, treasurer. Many different clubs and mission classes of the University were represented and intense interest was shown. A costume parade was to be held, but because of the large attendance and consequent lack of room this feature of the program had to be omitted.

President Valeria Bonnell introduced the speakers. One of the most interesting talks of the meeting was in regard to the work of Miss King in China. Another talk featured the support given to missionaries and to Miss King in particular. Mission study class work was touched on by various speakers. This seemed to be the principal topic of the evening. After several members of the faculty were given an opportunity to make impromptu talks, the enthusiastic meeting came to a close with the singing of the association hymn. Miss Conde, a missionary, will spend a week in Lincoln during March.

Miss Bennett, the new president, served as treasurer of the association during the past year. She has shown an unusual amount of interest in girls' work and is especially fitted for the position to which she has been elected. She is a Sophomore in the Agricultural College. Her home is in Lincoln.

Installation of the newly elected officers will occur some time next spring.

ALUMNI TO FEATURE CHARTER DAY PROGRAM

Track Meet and Evening Exercises Will Be Main Events.

Monday, February 16, has been designated by the University authorities as the day to be held in commemoration of Charter Day, which comes on Sunday. Charter Day exercises in the evening and an indoor track meet in the afternoon will be the main features of the day.

A big homecoming is being planned by the Nebraska Alumni Association under the direction of Guy Reed. A large number of invitations have been sent out and the Lincoln branch of the Association is planning a big entertainment for their guests. A large number of replies have been received and all indications point to a very successful gathering.

The indoor track meet will be composed of the usual events. Competition will be individual and class. A number of track men have already commenced work and there is an unusual interest shown in the coming contests.
