VIEWS OF PROPOSED NEW CAMPUS TO BE SHOWN

Largest Graduating Mid-Winter Class
 —Military Degrees to Be Conferred.

Charles Hodgdon, consulting architect of the firm which has been appointed to draw up plans for the proposed University campuses, will make the Charter Day address at the mid-winter graduating exercises this year. It is believed that many alumni will attend and benefit by this lecture. The purpose of those in charge is to inform as many as possible regarding the proposed campuses. Mr. Hodgdon's speech on "University Architecture" will be illustrated. His illustrations will be of college campuses throughout the United States, with suggestions for the Nebraska institution. He will give views of Oxford, Princeton, Harvard, Columbia and other universities. In addition he will show three schemes for the Nebraska campus—the united campus at the Farm, the city campus, and the Farm campus in case the two are not consolidated. This lecture will take the place of the regular commencement address and will be followed by the awarding of degrees by the Chancellor. The customary inter-class athletic meet will be held in the afternoon in Memorial Hall. This meet will probably be preceded by the Pershing Rifle spell-down drill and a concert by the Cadet Band. As usual, gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to those winning first, second and third in the different events.

This year's mid-winter graduating class is the largest of the mid-year classes which have been graduated from this University. There are about thirty-five candidates for degrees which will be granted on Charter Day, Monday, February 16. Several military degrees of commissions will also be given. Preparations are on to make these the best commencement exercises ever held at this time of the year. The exercises will be held in St. Paul's church and the public is invited to attend. No special invitations are to be sent out by the graduating class.

MINNESOTA DEFEATED

ally and in team play by the Cornhuskers, and Captain Stadvold saved the maroon and gold from a thorough routing. The Gopher leader scored five baskets during the game and played the defensive side of the game like a nuntamed tiger. Rutherford, left guard, and Captain Haskell carried the bulk of the Nebraska burden, but the teammates were always following the ball. Rutherford was the all-around stellar actor of the evening.

The Gophers missed the services of McKeon at the right forward position. Shaughnessy failed to equal his football ability in his trial at the indoor game, and failed to get a good start in the game.

The Minnesota team did not play together as much as could be expected and there were a few wild passes. The men fought hard in blocking, however, but were not as successful in following up the ball as their opponents. Nebraska played a rough game, which gave Lewis ten free throws on fouls and gave the spectators an opportunity to show they have something to learn about courtesy toward officials.

Minnesota—15 Nebraska—21
 Shaughnessy r. f. Hugg
 Sawyer l. f. Haskell (C.)
 Stadvold (C.) c. Meyers
 Lewis r. g. Hawkins
 Pynn l. g. Rutherford
 Field goals—Stadvold 5, Rutherford 5, Haskell 3, Pynn, Meyers, Hugg.
 Free throws—Lewis 3, Haskell 1. Referee—Jones (Drake). Umpire—Young (Oberlin). Time of halves—20 minutes.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 7.—Minnesota was almost shut out as far as field goals are concerned when the Gophers lost to Nebraska here tonight, 14 to 5. The Gophers did not make a basket during the first half, and two baskets in close play by Captain Stadvold in the middle of the second half were all the Minnesotans could get in legitimate scoring. It was a rough and tumble game from the start. Everything except flying tackles was in vogue, but when the officials did declare a foul on the Cornhuskers they managed to spread them around and none of the men were eliminated. Minnesota did not fare so well, for Giltinan went out in the last half under the foul limit.

The Gophers were guilty of wild passing, and when they got the ball failed to advance it toward their opponents' goal, but dallied with it in their own territory. Nebraska was better at following the ball and their men blocked savagely. Their leader,

Captain Haskell, was all over the floor, but his work was less effective than on Friday night. Lineup and summary:

Minnesota—4-9 Nebraska—6-14
 Giltinan r. f. Hanzlik
 Sawyer l. f. Haskell (C.)
 Roberts c. Meyers
 Lewis r. g. Hawkins
 Stadvold (C.) l. g. Rutherford
 Field goals—Stadvold 2, Haskell 2, Rutherford, Hawkins, Hanzlik. Free throws—Lewis 5, Haskell 2, Meyers 2. Substitutions—Shaughnessy for Stadvold, Stadvold for Robertson, Bierman for Lewis. Referee—Jones of Drake. Umpire—Young of Oberlin. Scorers—Frank and Reed. Time of halves—20 minutes.

HEAD SHAVING WAR AT UTAH

Sophomores and Freshmen Battle With Razors.

Open warfare has been declared between the sophomores and freshmen of the University of Utah, in the shape of a shaving contest. Several days ago the freshmen issued an edict that there would be a head-shaving bee in honor of the sophomores. The next day two freshmen appeared with no hair, and since then any lower-classman venturing on the campus alone has been in grave danger of being caught and shaved.
