

IN THE WILD WEST

The Tenderfoot—Ah, well, as Shakespeare says, "What's in a name?"
Alkali Ike Call me one that I don't like and I'll show you.

HONEST TO THE PENNY

Wicks—Is he an honest politician?
Hicks—Sure thing. Why, he pays cash for every vote he buys.

SOMEWHAT ALIKE

"What is the difference between a canoe and a motorboat?"
"Well, considerable."
"Not so much."
"Why not?"
"One the operator runs with his scull and the other with his brains."

MRS. MARION T. EGBERT

Mrs. Egbert, a former society girl of Chicago, is suing Percival W. Clement, former president of the Rutland railway and twice candidate for governor of Vermont, claiming $12,916 for breach of contract to employ her to trace his family tree and $2,000 for a diamond ring which she says he appropriated to his own use.

University Notices

Chorus.

Registration is still open for the big special chorus which is being assembled by Mrs. Raymond to sing on the May Festival program. Practices are being held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. A special class for men has been arranged for 7 o'clock on Monday evening. Registration for Chorus gives the student free admission to the May Festival entertainment.

Cornhusker Notice.

All organization pictures must be taken by February 15. Juniors and Seniors must accept their proofs at Townsend's at once.

Wanted—For Cornhusker.

Wanted—Your best snapshots for publication in the Cornhusker. Any individual, group, "stunt" pictures, picnic, dance or party groups will be gladly accepted at the office, or mail to the Editorial Department.

Election Notice.

The general election for selecting the president of the four respective University classes, the Editor-in-Chief, the Managing Editor and the Business Manager of the Cornhusker, and the Ivy Day Orator will be held on Tuesday, February 17th, in Memorial Hall. The polls will be open from 9 to 12 and 1:30 to 5, excepting the Convocation period from 11 to 11:30, during which the polls will be closed.

Each candidate is required to file a written statement of his candidacy in this office before 5 p. m., Friday, February 13. No candidate shall be entitled to election whose name is not printed on the ballot. There shall be no soliciting of votes by cards or otherwise at the polls or in the building in which the election is being held during election day.

E. M. RUTLEDGE, Registrar.

Debaters.

The tryouts for the freshman and sophomore inter-class debating teams are scheduled, by the committee in charge, for this evening, to begin at 7:30 sharp. The first year men will meet in U. 106 and the sophomores in U. 104. The junior and senior tryouts will be held Friday of this week in the same rooms. The first speaker of the affirmative will have a five-minute opening speech and three minutes in rebuttal. The other speakers will have seven minutes in their main speeches and no rebuttal. The order of speakers is posted in the debate bulletin case in the south hall of University Hall.

Senior. Pin.

Orders for Senior pins will be taken in the Library on Wednesday from 8 to 10 and Tuesday from 10 to 12. Fifty cents must be deposited and the remainder to be paid upon the receipt of the pin.

Dramatic Club.

Dramatic Club tryouts will be held at the Temple Theatre, February 26, 7 p. m. Anyone wishing to try out for membership in the club is requested to report to Miss Howell in U. 106 between 11 and 12 on the same day as the tryouts. Parts of any modern play may be used.

German Dramatic Club.

The German Dramatic Club will meet at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday in Faculty Hall. Special entertainment has been prepared in honor of the new members.

Architectural Club Meets.

The Architectural Engineers of the University meet again this Thursday evening in Mechanics Arts Hall for a short talk and business meeting. A short illustrated talk on some of the phases of architecture will be given by Mr. A. W. Woods, the Lincoln architect. The meeting was originally scheduled for last week, but owing to Mr. Woods being called out of town on a like errand it was postponed. A series of student talks on interesting building problems is soon to be inaugurated, and a smoker is also being planned.

The Place: M. A. Hall 206.

Rifle Team Notice.

All men of the Rifle Team eligible to have their pictures taken will find their names posted at the rifle range. Pictures to be taken February 19 at 11:15 a. m., at Townsend's.
