SIGMA NU DOG "PAN-HEL" CAUSES MUCH TROUBLE

Bunch Wakes in Morning and Finds the Favorite Missing—City Thoroughly Searched.

Yesterday morning consternation reigned supreme at the Sigma Nu house, for, "Horror of Horrors," Pan-Hel had disappeared. He had been carefully tucked away in his little cradle on the preceding evening (he refused to sleep with the freshmen), but the first man to awaken in the morning, upon running to caress the little fellow, found him gone! The alarming news immediately spread to the sleeping ones above and the house was awake in a minute. Even the sedate seniors rushed to the rescue of poor little Pan-Hel. Detachments were sent in every direction with orders to return with news concerning the pet or never to return at all. The boys set to work with a vim and certainly turned the city upside down. Not a backyard or basement in the city but was thoroughly searched. About ten o'clock Leon Samuelson decided that he had located the dog in a barn in the eastern part of College View. He was certain that he could hear the poor fellow whimpering. After much labor he managed to unlock the door and was about to claim his prize, but by the time that same dog had secured a prominent portion of Leon's pants, he decided that he had made a slight mistake and excused himself as gracefully as possible. The more important results began to appear about noon. One of the freshmen had found the dog and had, with much trouble, managed to bear him home. The only trouble seemed to lie in the fact that the dog's tail was much longer than it had been the night before. They decided, however, that it must have grown during the night. The lucky boy was just relating his adventures when—Who on earth was that ragmuffin coming down the street? Why, it's our old friend Kenneth Snyder. We could hardly recognize him. "I'll tell you fellows it was a hard chase, but I learned where he is." But what was that noise in the basement? Everything was forgotten in the new excitement. Upon reaching the doorway to the basement, what do you think they saw? There was Pan-Hel trying his best to overcome a great big mouse almost as large as a pea.

WINTER BIRD FLIES FOR SOUTHLAND

Old Jayhawk Bird Fails to Bring Forth the Cash—"His Master's Voice."
"Kaw, Kaw, A W G W A N!" cried old Mr. "Jayhawk" this morning out in front of the "ribosh." "Shell out that four-bit piece." But the startled few positively refused to shell. And so old "Jayhawk" decided to have a little fun with passersby. Names were not spared in the old bird's efforts to corner the elusive "kate"—but said "kate" is still at large.
Much speculation was offered concerning just who was the voice of "Jayhawk," but everybody was certain when one of the recent politicians took hold of the tube and laughed for the bird. This was the only real entertaining part of the affair. Perhaps the bird is again in his grave. Perhaps he will stay there for a time.

Sport Notes.

Kansas Wesleyan gave the Jayhawker five, which is touring among the smaller colleges of Kansas, a 56 to 28 drubbing Monday night.

The Minnesota basketball five won from Purdue last Saturday night by a 27 to 17 score.

His First Love.

A freshman who to love inclined
A little maid one day did find,
Walking along. He kept behind
Like
This.

Then to a seat at last came she,
And, being tired, sat down, you see.
She at one end; at the other, he:
Like
this.

At last he smiled, and she smiled too,
And soon the distance shorter grew
Between them as when lovers woo,
Likethis.

Old Grads to Receive Athletic Honors From Minnesota.

The recent ruling of the Board of Athletic Control at the University of Minnesota provides for the awarding of the Minnesota "M" to all old athletes who won honors for the university before the custom of awarding the honor letters was put into operation. In order to effect their plan there will be a meeting of as many of the old athletes as possible at the university in the near future, where the "Ms" will be awarded. The number of men who are eligible to the honor will amount to something over one hundred.—Drake Daily Delphic.

The "telephone" tango is the latest of the late dances to be introduced in the university.—Daily Texan.
