

NEW DANCE HALL ON UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Dean of Women Agrees to Use of Art Hall as Scene of the New Fangled Dances.

A new dance hall on the campus has been submitted to University students for dancing. Miss Graham has given her consent for the use of Art Hall in the Library building. There is no reason why this hall should not give satisfaction and also help solve the expense problem as the hall is to be had at the nominal price of seven dollars, or in other words, the price of the Temple Music Hall. This will relieve the weekly rush for the Music Hall. A piano is to be put in the hall and the furnishings will be disposed of when occasion demands. The comfortable chairs and davenport will provide unusually pleasant intermissions. The general atmosphere of art and attractiveness will be a relief to the aesthetically minded persons who have endured barren walls and glaring windows these many years. The opening party in the hall will be the Tri Delta dance given the 28th—unless other parties are scheduled in the meantime. The hall was used early in the fall by the Silver Lynx and it is partly because of the enthusiasm over it that it is now being opened for general use.

WAR DEPARTMENT RULING

West Point Entrance Requirements Changed.

A student of Purdue may now be admitted to West Point without having to pass a mental examination, providing he gets an appointment and passes the physical examination. The commandant is in receipt of an order from the secretary of war stating that a candidate for commission to the United States military academy from a state, district or territory may be excused from the mental examination for admission providing that he presents a properly attested certificate that he is a regularly enrolled student in good standing in any university accredited by the United States Military Academy. ATHLETIC OUTLOOK
FOR SEASON OF 1914

Outlook at Harvard is Not So Satisfactory—Yale is Weak and Dartmouth is Not Optimistic.

(Purdue Exponent.)

With the spring track and field schedules completed and large squads of athletes training at all the eastern universities, it is possible to secure a general line on the activities and the prospects of the various teams for the season of 1914.

Lack of New Material.

According to general report, there is a noticeable lack of sensational novice material for the varsity teams and trainers are, as a rule, counting upon the veterans of the past two seasons for the points which may be reasonably apportioned among the colleges so early in the season. Using the inter-collegiate championship meet of last year as a basis upon which to work, it is seen that Pennsylvania, which won the 1913 title with a score of 24 points, is again favored with athletic material of considerable strength.

The outlook at Harvard, which finished second with 21½ points, is not so satisfactory and Coaches Powers and Donovan will have to develop a number of new men if the Crimson team is to repeat its record of last season. The Cambridge squad promises to be strong in the middle and long distance runs and the weight events. Many point winners were lost by graduation last June and the freshman material of 1913 is not particularly promising when compared to that of the other colleges of the east.

Outlook at Cornell.

At Cornell, Trainer Jack Moakley has 140 athletes in training. The Ithaca team finished fourth with 17½ points in 1913, being defeated for the third place by Michigan. Moakley has stated that he faces an unusually hard problem this year, since he must develop virtually a new team.

To offset this heavy loss by graduation, the team will be strengthened by a number of promising recruits from last year's freshman team and several athletes ineligible in 1913. Judging from the material in sight, Cornell should be strong in field events and middle distance runs, but weak in sprints and hurdles. Dartmouth, who won fifth place at the I. A. A. A. meet with 14½ points, is not optimistic regarding the track team. Coach Harry Hillman states that, like Cornell, graduation cut heavily into the point winners. The present sophomore class contains few athletes above the ordinary standard. Fair material is in sight for the one-half and mile run, the hurdles and the pole vault. Yale is at present weak in distance runners, but in both sprints and field contests has veterans and novice competitors who should win places in both dual and championship meets.

The Blue has Captain Brown, who won the inter-collegiate half mile, and Potter, second, in the 220 hurdles. As a nucleus. If Trainer Mack can develop several high class sprinters and distance runners, the Elis will prove formidable. Prospects at Princeton are not as satisfactory as at New Haven, for the Tigers lost fourteen of the 1913 team by graduation.

Trainer Keene Fitzpatrick will have to increase the standard of performance if the Orange and Black is to finish better than ninth place, which is Princeton's mark as a result of the six points collected at Cambridge in the inter-collegiate last May.

SIMPSON GAME ENDS IN FREE-FOR-ALL

Nebraska Claims Tie—Simpson Claims Victory—No Report From Reynolds.

At present the Nebraska-Simpson game is up in the air. Nebraska men claim that it is a tie and Simpson claims a victory. The official report of Assistant Coach Reynolds has not as yet been received by Coach Stiehm. Indications point to the fact that the game ended in a riot, with Hawkins and an opponent in a fight.

The report of the game given out by the Simpson people is as follows: Captain Haskell was the star for the Nebraska team, scoring six baskets from the floor. Rutherford, the mighty Cornhusker guard, was well covered and failed to count.

The score and summary:

Nebraska—21. Simpson—22.

Hugg (C.) Barbourka
Haskell (C.) Dyke
Myers Saur (C.)
Hawkins Wilson.
Rutherford Groves

Substitutes—Slocum for Dyke; Hanzlik for Hawkins.

Field goals—Haskell, 6; Hugg, 4; Barbourka, 5; Groves, 3.

Free throws—Dyke, 2; Saur, 2; Myers, 1.

Referee—Steward of Iowa.

coached by vespy one man and the advisory committee will be abolished next fall. The open play will be used to the exclusion of all else, and the forward pass will be improved. The spring practice will consist chiefly of scrimmage.—Daily Maroon.

Both the University of Iowa and the University of Indiana are at present trying to raise money for a new gymnasium. Indiana has little hope, but Iowa expects to receive the money.
