TEAM LOSES EXCITING GAME TO CORNHUSKERS

Cornhuskers Come Up From Behind and Win by a 33 to 17 Score.

Playing the best game of the season, Drake went down to defeat before Nebraska on the local floor yesterday by a score of 36 to 17. The difference in the count does not indicate the fierceness of the play and there was not a minute in the game that was without interest. Drake fought from whistle to whistle many times out playing the speedy Cornhuskers and putting up a brand of basketball that delighted the crowd.

It would be hard to pick an individual star from the Blue and White. Every man played the game of his life. Captain Turner, although unable to score from the field under the close guarding of Howard, was in the game every minute. His opponent, Howard, shot two goals from the field, but one of these was a long one, of the sort the visitors seemed addicted to.

Nebraska played a great game. Their team work and passing was among the best seen here this year. Every man was an expert at guarding his opponent. Haskell is the fastest man ever seen on the Drake floor, while the two guards, Hawkins and Howard, both played excellent games. Hanzlik played a good game as long as he kept his temper, but was in dire danger of coming out via the foul route when replaced by Hugg. Drake Delphic.

NEBRASKA CRUSHES AMES BASKETBALL TOSSERS

Win Two Games From Iowa Conference Team—Slow Playing.

Ames, Ia., Feb. 21.—Nebraska beat the Ames basketball team decisively, 16 to 3, this afternoon. Nebraska had the game in hand from the start. The score at the end of the first half was 8 to 1. Rutherford was the only Nebraska man who could not score. Nebraska outclassed Ames today, both offensively and defensively. They out-dribbled and outpassed Ames and had the knack of completing passes when near the Ames goal. The Nebraska defense was too close and fast for Ames to do anything with it. Ames' one field goal was thrown by Holmes in the last half. The lineup:

Nebraska	Ames
Hanzlik	Dowell
Haskell	Swiney
Myers	Holmes
Hawkins	Hansell
Rutherford	Kelly
Substitutes: Hugg for Hanzlik.

Howard for Hawkins, Porterfield for Swiney.
Field baskets—Hanzlik 2, Haskell, Myers 2, Hawkins, Hugg 2.
Free throws—Swiney.
Referee—Hyland of Iowa.

SPORT NOTES.

The Kansas Aggies won from Missouri last Wednesday night by a score of 35 to 32. It was a real fight from whistle to whistle. The game was played in Columbia.

Carl Lundgren, former "Illini" athlete and Chicago "Cub" twirler, is to coach the University of Michigan 1914 baseball squad.

There were only ten men who turned out in answer to the call for spring track work at the University of Michigan.

Few Cases of Mumps Reported—Nothing Serious—Advice for the Non-Afflicted.

"Have you ever had the mumps?" That question is being hurled at one from all sides and produces a panic on every occasion. Of all plagues invented for the misery and torture of mankind, mumps deserve first rank and blue ribbons. And to think that the (plague) scourge is raging on the campus and "good men and true" are stricken by the score.

You in your security with the mumpless stop long enough in your care-free existence to consider the plight of the many unfortunates who sit around with their faces tied up and their grins absolutely shot to pieces. It is then that the saints develop and we find the worst sinners enduring all with meekness and hope. But now, we ask, can one be truly amiable when suffering a loss to dignity and disposition at the same time? The question is certainly open to discussion, and just now the "Rag" would like to offer a few suggestions to the many miserables. Keep cheery and happy, and don't let your friends see you from any standpoint. We promise you a merry welcome when we see your normal face again and not your loss of cheek.

CAMP PLANS OUT

made to get these petitions out of the way at once because immediate action is necessary if the regiment is to take advantage of the opportunity to hold camp at Leavenworth with the cadets of Kansas Agricultural College and of the University of Missouri.

Camp, as planned, will cause the minimum of sacrifice of college and vacation work. It will be held the first week in June. All cadets will be permitted to take their final examinations a week early. They will be dismissed from camp at the same time that the other students are dismissed in Lincoln. They will not have to worry about coming back for final exams, nor need they fear that camp will take away one week from their summer's work or pleasure. If camp is not granted, they will be in college just as long, until June 9. Camp will interfere with but one thing—regular class work. It will not interfere with examinations, with summer vacations, nor with seniors receiving their degrees in Lincoln.

The cost will be kept down to the minimum. It is not thought that in any event the expense will be more than six dollars. If the encampment is held at Leavenworth, the United States Government will bear the entire expense excepting railroad fare. It will not cost the average man any more to go to camp than it would to live in Lincoln for ten days.

Concerning the nature of the camp, the Nebraskan has only hearsay evidence. It is understood that there will be but one "like" a day, in the morning. The afternoons, till five, will be left to the cadets. At five regimental parades and reviews will be given. From then until taps every man will be his own master. There will be no more night marches.

Reporters Disappointed.

So perfectly blameless and correct was the dancing at the celebrated Pan-Hellenic dance held recently at the University of Minnesota that a large number of scoop reporters who had repaired to points of vantage earlier in the evening are reported to have left in disgust. Nothing sensational was done, and every one seemed to have a good time. A record-breaking crowd was present, but this did not seem to appease the newspaper men, who failed to see any possibilities of a feature story in the dance. The affair reflects credit on the management and the dancers present, according to local papers, which evidently expected a display of some sort.
