 1879.
 The DAILY NEBRASKAN purposes to be the free voice of student sentiment;
 to be fair, to be impartial; to seek advice
 as well as offer it; to truthfully picture college life; to go further than the mere printing of news by standing for the highest ideals of the University; in short,
 to serve the University of Nebraska.

Bowman has always been in favor of the present policy, he had, up until yesterday, taken no hand in the petitioning. With the Commandant in charge, fair play is assured.

People We Know.

Please note that the phone number of the Daily Nebraskan has been changed and is now L-7451.
 Professors Maxey, Aylesworth and Jones will judge a debate tonight between the York and Osceola High Schools.
 Florence Baird, who attended the University last year, is making a short visit in Lincoln. She is taking voice lessons from Madame Cosgrove in Chicago.
 Miss Rachel Holmes, formerly of the Botany department, who has been taking Professor Snodgrass' place in the Kearney Normal School, has been appointed to a position in the Bureau of Plant Industry at Washington, D. C. She leaves this afternoon to take up her new work.
 Doctor Condra is in Falls City today, where he will give a lecture before the local conservation congress. Later in the week he will lecture at Stromsburg and Minden.

TODAY IN NEBRASKA'S HISTORY

February 27, 1909.
 Louis A. Gregory was yesterday chosen by Elmer W. Mills, senior president, as Ivy Day orator. This is the most important office that the president of the class has to appoint. Mr. Gregory was a member of the debating team for two years and is a member of Delta Tau Delta and Phi Alpha Tau fraternities.

February 27, 1912.
 The committee on delinquent students which has been acting on the cases of wayward students for the past week has completed its work. Professor Engberg announces that the number of delinquents is smaller than last year. This year only eleven were requested to leave school, as compared with sixteen a year ago.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture.
 W. M. Bryant delivered a very interesting address last night in Music Hall of the Temple on the subject, "Expensive Whistles." He attempted to show that often we place too much stress upon and pay too expensively for mere pleasures which last but for a time. The attendance was not so large as it should have been. This series of lectures which the Y. M. C. A. is giving presents some very good speakers and deserves the support of every man. The attendance heretofore has been very good and should not drop down now when some of the best numbers appear.

Seventy-First Regular Meeting.
 The seventy-first regular meeting of the Nebraska section of the Chemical Society will meet this evening in the chemical lecture room at 8:00 o'clock. The following program will be given: "Di-Phenyl Carbazide, Bichromate Titration for Iron," Dr. Benton Dales; "Some New Molecular Organic Compounds of Aluminum and Trium," William Kirk.

CADETS WANTED AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Three-Page Circular Letter Distributed Among Cadets Explaining the Trip.

Major S. A. Cloman, chief of the military bureau of the United States Army, has issued a circular letter, pertaining to an international military tournament, which has been distributed among the cadets of the Military department. Military representatives from all parts of the world and from all states of the Union will be represented.

The program, divided into six sections, is as follows:
 First—The National Guard convention; congress of military surgeons, and various other military and semi-military assemblies.

Second—A military encampment in which the forces may not only be comfortably sheltered, but which will be a model and object lesson to all.

Third—Military ceremonies of all nations and non-competitive displays.

Fourth—Band competitions.

Fifth—Athletic and riding competitions.

Sixth—A complete schedule of competitive military events between individuals, squads, companies, batteries, and larger detachments.
 This international military tournament will be held at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, California, during the summer of 1915. Every school that is able to send men to participate in this event is urged to do so. Subscriptions are usually made by parents, but many other arrangements can be made by enthusiastic young fellows.
