NON-REMOVALISTS GET BUSY

Plan Campaign to Keep University at Present Site—Opening Guns of Fight to Be Waged at Next Regular Election.

In answer to the call of Ernest M. Pollard, about twenty men and five women, alumni of the University, met Tuesday afternoon in the Lindell Hotel to effect a permanent anti-removal organization. Mr. Pollard sent out some two hundred letters to alumni and received fifty replies, all of which—with four exceptions—were heartily in favor of keeping the University on the present campus.

Mr. Pollard explained that the purpose of the meeting was to bring about an effective organization to present the anti-removalist side to the voters. All that has been said so far, he declared, has been on the other side. The Board of Regents called in four outside educators to pass on the question, knowing that they were in favor of removal when asked. He explained that the fact that the University was located in the city made it possible for himself to go through college, and did so for many students.

Prof. H. K. Wolfe said that, in the absence of orders to the contrary, he felt it his privilege to work for and meet with the anti-removalists. He commended the Chancellor for his stand, but he declared that anybody and everybody as individuals had the right to fight and fight hard. No matter why one wants removal or does not want it, be it for sentiment, for personal gain, or any other reason,

THETAS PLACED UNDER BAN BY COMMITTEE

Can Neither Pledge Nor Initiate Any More Girls This Year—Violation of Rules.

The following notice is self-explanatory:

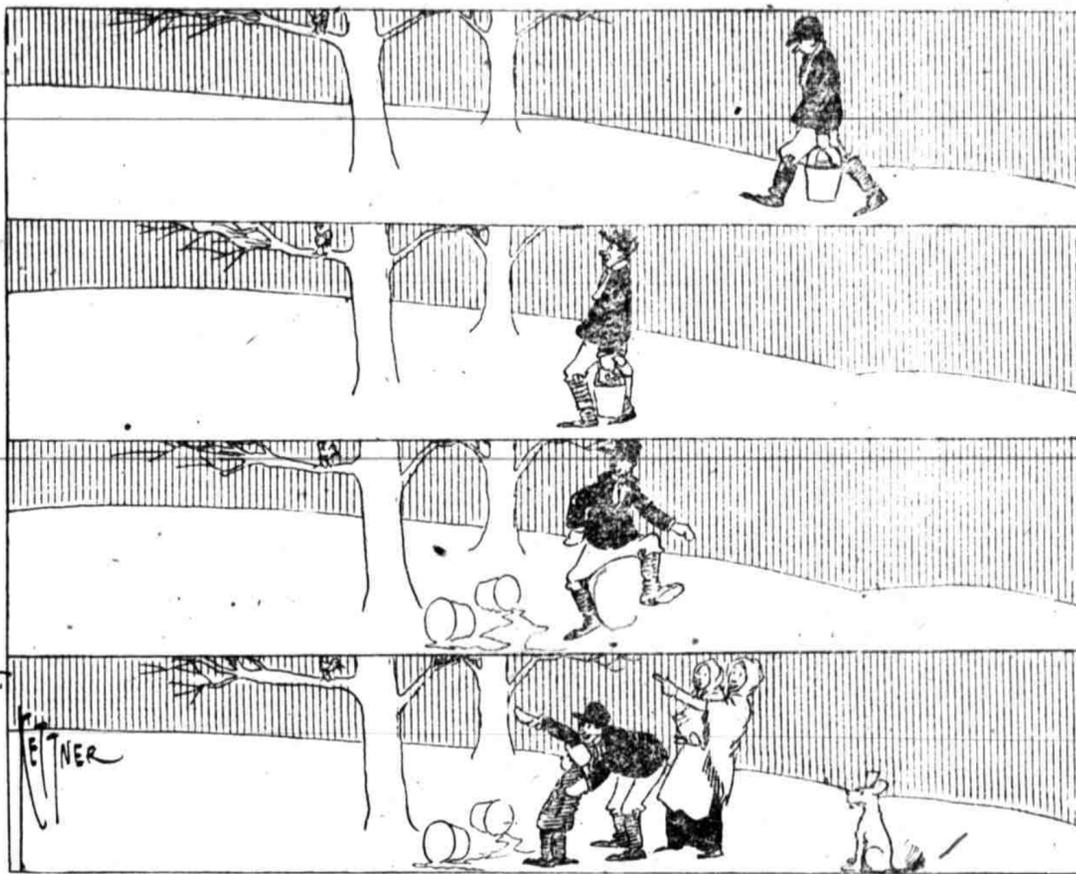

"The Nebraska chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity is hereby notified that it shall neither pledge nor initiate any girls until the first pledge day (to be announced later) of the school year 1914-1915.

"This penalty is declared because Kappa Alpha Theta broke its interfraternity compact in pledging a girl known to be delinquent and reported officially so to the fraternity.

"Girls now pledged who finish the school year without delinquency and who will not attend the University next year may be initiated on the pledge day before stated (Fall 1914-1915) without being enrolled in the University if Kappa Alpha Theta's own rules will permit this."

This action was taken by the Advisory Board of the Women's Pan-Hellenic Council yesterday and goes into effect at once. This is the only flagrant case of disobedience to rushing rules thus far investigated by the committee, although several other minor ones have been reported. The majority of the latter were caused, however, by mistake and light punishment sentences were inflicted.

JAIN TEMPLE IN INDIA
COST MILLION DOLLARS
Secretary Ewing of the Uni. Y. M. C. A. Gave Illustrated Lecture Yesterday.

Mr. Ewing, general secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., spoke before a limited number at convocation yesterday. His topic was "Architecture of India." As an introduction to his talk Mr. Ewing pointed out the more important cities and sections of India to make clear the location of various kinds of architecture. Tourists usually travel through the territory immediately south of the Himalya mountains, for some of the world's greatest and most beautiful buildings are located there.

The topic, a mound-shaped Buddhist monument, is the chief construction of an architectural nature in India and the Jain Temple on Mount Aboo is said to have cost over one million dollars. The Taj Agro, claimed as the most beautiful building in the world, was designed by an Indian and not by an Italian, as is the general impression. The landscape about this structure is most beautiful.

The temples are usually constructed in three parts, the temple proper, the shrine porch, and the dancing hall. About these temples are often found from one to four rectangular walls, with a large gateway at every side. The wall is nothing out of the ordinary, but the gateways are architecture of the very finest. Carvings cover the arches to a height of 150 feet in some cases. Seven temples cut from solid rock are located in this region, and although they are incomplete, they represent workmanship of a high order. Every temple has a "Hall of 1,000 Columns." This is but the title given to a particular building, for many of them contain only several hundred.

EIGHT MAKE THE UNI. DRAMATIC CLUB

Thirty-Eight Students Try Out—Three Men and Five Young Ladies Chosen.

Eight of the thirty-eight young people that tried out for the Dramatic Club Monday night were successful in drawing places. The fortunate and talented ones are: Orville Chatt, Fred Fielding, Burke Taylor, Ethel Hartley, Lucille Leyda, Camille Leyda, Tanzon Manker and Ella Williams.

Many of the young people showed talent and have fine chances for future tryouts, but their failure to select proper parts caused them to lose out. The committee in charge has notified the eight young people of their having received places and they are now members of the Dramatic Club.

SENIOR CLASS ELECTS SECOND SEMESTER OFFICERS

President Haskell Announces Appointments—Senior Play Is Discussed.

The senior class meeting of Tuesday morning was attended by the usual faithful few and the officers were elected with the usual lack of interest.

The officers are as follows: Vice-president, Elizabeth Hyde; secretary, Clark Dickinson; treasurer, Charles Epperson.

Mr. Kiddie talked about the senior play, which will soon be under way, and urged all seniors with any dramatic ability to try out when the time comes. The committee is at present debating whether to have the play presented at the Oliver according to custom, or to have it given twice at the Temple. The last presentation would be during commencement week, thus enabling relatives and town people to see it without faking seating room. Sentiment of the students on this matter would be appreciated by the committee.

"MAN FROM HOME"

JUNIOR PLAY WILL BE RARE SCENIC PRODUCTION.

AT THE OLIVER FRIDAY NIGHT

Some Novel and Artistic Ideas Being Used in the Scenic Effects of Junior Play—The Advance Sale of Tickets Good.

Plans are being carried out to make the Junior Play one of the most artistic scenic productions ever witnessed by a University audience. The entire town is being searched in an effort to make both the private citizens and the department stores give up their treasures to contribute to the success of the performance. Aside from the fact that everything is being introduced on to the stage that can possibly add to the drowsy effect of a southern Italian summer, and aside from the fact that a big Buick auto is brought out on to the stage in one scene, there will also be a novelty presented which Clarence Clark, the stage manager, refuses to disclose, but which he says will be positively one of the biggest hits of the year.

The first scene opens on the terrace of the Hotel Regina Margherita, on the cliff at Sorrento, overlooking the Bay of Naples. As the curtain rises mandolins and guitars are heard in the distance. How's this for a setting for a good old American romance involving international complications? Care has been taken on every hand to make the setting thoroughly in keeping with the spirit of the story and the high grade of the acting.

The cast is putting in some of the hardest ticks of its career these days, and the whole performance promises to be one of unusual interest and finish.

FUND GROWING FOR KOMENSKY MONUMENT

Komensky Club Has Nearly $1,500 for Purpose of Buying Statue for University Grounds.

The fund for the Komensky monument to be erected on the University campus after the location is settled has reached nearly $1,500. The various chapters located at other universities are beginning to take an active part in making the fund grow. Entertainments where admission is charged are held for the benefit of the fund. The chapters at the Universities of Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Texas are among the clubs to be heard from. After these clubs report it is expected that the fund will be greatly increased.

Very little solicitation has been carried on and those in charge are very well pleased with the interest shown among the Bohemian organizations of the country. It is expected that after a more active campaign has been started it will be comparatively easy to get the $3,000 required to erect the monument. There are twenty-six clubs that belong to the educational societies of Komensky Clubs of the United States. Each of these clubs are to give an entertainment the proceeds of which are to be donated to the monument fund. The Clarkston Club is now preparing an entertain-
