FEEDS ON THE LIST FOR FAIR ONES THIS WEEK

Birthday Entertainments for Two Next Week—Funds for These Doin's From the Girls.

The girls' gymnasium department are regaling themselves with a series of "feeds." This week the juniors of the department entertained their friends of the other classes with a delightful little repast. It is stated, however, that some of the attractiveness of the feast was lacking because the guests were required to furnish the funds for the entertainment. Next week there will be a birthday "feed" for two of the department members.

NATIONAL GIRLS' CLUB MEETS APRIL 24 AND 25

Method for Securing Funds for Sending Delegate to Be Devised—Delegate Selection Soon.

Notice has been received in Miss Graham's office that the names of delegates to the National Girls' Club Association, which will be held April 24 and 25, should be sent in very shortly. This will no doubt cause a change in the habits of the Girls' Club board, for heretofore the delegate has been the president of the succeeding year. Since the election for president does not ordinarily come till late in May, this will necessitate a special election for a delegate. A method for securing funds to send a delegate will have to be devised.

CANDY WENT FAST AFTER CONVOCATION YESTERDAY

Many Turned Away With Sad Faces—Six Dollars Cleared in Short Time—More Soon.

The Y. W. C. A. was so successful in its candy sale Thursday that they threaten to follow it up speedily with another one. The candy was placed on sale at the convocation hour and before the crowd had gone the candy was all gone. A hungry line was turned away disappointed. The committee cleared six dollars on the sale. Next time there will be more candy to meet increasing demands.

Botany Seminar.

The following program was given last night at the semi-monthly meeting of the Sem. Bot:
 "After Ripening of Seed," Margaret Hannah.
 "Plant Relations in Northern Michigan," Prof. S. J. Pool.

FOR JOURNALISM SCHOOL THERE

President Vincent of Minnesota Uni Favors New Courses.

President Vincent of the University of Minnesota advocated a course in Journalism for his school in a recent address before the Minnesota Editorial Association.

"It has been for some time the aim of the University of Minnesota to introduce courses of this character," he said. "The experimental stage has been passed. Beyond doubt, with the right staff and proper equipment, successful results could be obtained."

The subject of his speech was "The Teaching of Journalism in American Institutions."—University Missourian.

Phi Beta Kappa.

A meeting of the Faculty Council of Alpha of Nebraska Phi Beta Kappa will be held Monday, March 9, 1914, in Nebraska Hall, room 110, at 7:30 p. m. A full attendance of the council is very much desired.

Recommendation of new members. Other important business.

The chapter will meet at 8:15 p. m. in the same room for the election of new members and the election of officers for the next school year. The names of the new members will be announced at the close of the inter-class debate on Tuesday morning.
RAYMOND J. POOL, Secretary.

Graham at Bloomington.

R. A. Graham, '13, is doing the engineering and superintending construction of a modern hydro-electric lighting system at the town of Bloomington, Nebraska. Bloomington will be perhaps the smallest town in the state that can boast of a self-supporting lighting system with twenty-four hour service that does not overtax the consumer.

Coach Reed will not accompany the track team to Kansas City. He is forced to stay in Lincoln to finish plans for the big tournament which is to come off next week.

Severed Football.

The football that "Husker" Beck placed behind the Gopher goal last November is all prepared for the trophy room. It has been cut in half and mounted in two sections. One half is to be placed in Coach Stiehm's office and the other in the alumni trophy room.

WILL GIVE "Y" FOR FIFTH PLACE

Yale Enlarges Field for Track Athletes to Win Letter.

At a meeting of the Yale Athletic Association, held recently, the rules for wearing athletic insignia were revised. Hereafter the university "Y" will be awarded men who win fifth place in the track intercollegiate. A change was also made in regard to the jerseys for track men, by which a competitor in the Princeton meet is awarded a "Y" jersey. Heretofore only men competing in the intercollegiate or the Harvard meet were allowed to have them. Another rule is to the effect that men on minor teams have no right to wear hats with the insignia of their teams on them.—Daily Illini.

HECK HALL FUND REACHES $300

Contributions to Daily Northwestern Fund Are Large.

The Daily Northwestern fund for Heck Hall men reached the even $300 mark yesterday. One contribution of a large amount not reported last week was that from Pearson's Hall, amounting to $16.30. The Daily Northwestern feels that the student body has responded generously in this appeal for assistance to the unfortunate men. The amount realized solely from the students and campus organizations was $2.75.

Heck Hall was recently destroyed by fire.—Daily Northwestern.
