Vaudeville Favorites at the Orpheum
 This Week.

No matter how many new sketches Claud and Fanny Usher may secure or how clever they may be, they will always be remembered for their presentation of their thumbnail masterpiece, "Fagin's Decision." It is, how-every, pleasing to note that in "The Straight Path" Claud and Fanny Usher have secured a vehicle of equal appeal. The piece is a careful blend of comedy and pathos. Miss Usher, of course, is seen in the role of a child.

 The story has to do with a brother and sister. The boy, who has just stepped over the threshold of the business world, finds himself entangled in numerous snarls which threaten his ruin. Naturally, therefore, he neglects his sister, who after an attack of fever loses her sight temporarily. The girl's efforts to bring her brother back to the field from which he has strayed forms the story of the playlet. Her efforts are ultimately successful, but the way in which they are accomplished are decidedly interesting and contain many a heart throb and many a tear and many a laugh.

Dining Hall for Students.

A common dining room, where meals will be served three times a day, will be opened next month at the University of Colorado. The dining room and the new gymnasium are the gifts of a rich alumnus. Fraternities of the university have been asked by the president to discontinue eating at their houses and use the common hall.

College Men Edit Most Magazines.

At a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat Club of New York, a club composed of magazine editors, writers and illustrators, the fact was disclosed that a large proportion of magazine editors are college graduates. All the editors present, with one exception, were found to be college men.

"THE OPEN MIND"

Students' Liberal Religious Union, 12:15

We ordinarily think of freedom in its political aspects, but freedom is something that every individual has to win for himself. It has to do not only with matters relating to politics and science, but also to the personality's capacity to rise triumphant over every experience.
 The struggle for freedom is the constant task of every individual; therefore "THE OPEN MIND" is one of the most important subjects to be considered in relation to the development of the strong, effective personality.

PROF. H. W. CALDWELL will give the first of a series of three addresses. Subject, "Some World Problems."

YOU ARE INVITED

To the Subscribers of the Daily Nebraskan:

During the campaign for new subscribers during the past registration week, promissory notes for $1.00 were taken by the management as equivalent to the cash subscription.

While these notes are payable on the demand of the publishers, it is not the intent of the publishers to demand the payment at a certain date but it understood that payment must be made before the signer of the note leaves school.

"Those who are indebted to the Daily Nebraskan for the present semester may visit the office in the basement of University Hall at any time and upon the payment of $1.00 receive a receipt in full.

Prompt payment will assist the management very materially in making a full financial report before the end of the school year.
