remarkable fashion the more active parts of the stunts.

Last, but not least, was "The Freshman," put on by the Dramatic Club. The play, true to its name, was a typical college prank presentation. The freshman, Clark, of course, being the victim of circumstances. The members of the cast played their parts "fully as well as would professionals"—to use the expression of people in the audience.

The program was presented under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A.

Don Mapes and his committee deserve much credit for the success of the affair. The planning and preparation of such an event requires a great deal of time and skill. The members of the committee are: Don Mapes, chairman, L. W. Charlesworth, and Merrill V. Reed.

ROUND UP TO MEET IN TEMPLE AT NOON TODAY

Many Fine Talks on Program and
Many Are Requested to Be Out—Reese Will Talk.

The first Round Up meeting since the spring vacation will be held in the University Temple today at 12:30. O. N. Magee of the well-known clothing firm by that name will give the devotional talk. President Herbert Reese of the University Y. M. C. A. will talk on "Spring Practice." E. E. Bennett of the Midwest Life Insurance Company will give a practical talk on "Enlisting Men for Service." After the foregoing part of the program, suggestions for the improvement of the Round Up for the coming year will be in order. Secretary Ewing will give some helpful suggestions.

GIRLS' CLUB OFFICERS TO BE CHOSEN SOON

Big Mass Meeting Planned—President-Elect Will Attend National Convention—Spring Parties.

At the regular meeting of the Girls' Club council this week plans were made for a big girls' mass meeting to elect officers for the coming year. Thirteen officers are to be elected, namely, president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and nine other officers to be chosen from the upper classes. This meeting will be held soon, so that the newly elected president may attend the national convention of Girls' Club councils, which will be held soon in Indianapolis. Besides the election, the last few entertainments of the year will be discussed. A big All-University girls' picnic has been proposed, besides a number of minor out-of-door affairs which will be given after the regular Saturday afternoon parties have ceased.

At the Magnet.

With a great cast from the "legitimate" drama, "Arizona," produced as a photo-play in six parts and two hundred and ten scenes, will be seen at the Magnet for an engagement positively limited to four days, beginning March 30. The production was made by Augustus Thomas, author of "Arizona," who is acting as director-general for the productions made by the All Star Feature Corporation of New York. Mr. Thomas himself prepared the scenario from his play and engaged the cast of principals, this cast being headed by Cyril Scott, and including William Conklin, Francis Carlisle, Gail Kane, Lizzie McCall, Alma Bradley, H. D. Blakemore, Gertrude Shipman, Robert Broderick, who originally created the role of "Canby the Ranchman," and Wong Ling, a native Chinese actor, who is seen as "Sam."

Track Men Wonder.

Mid-semester are in danger of wrecking the track team. Most of the men are safe, but one or two are on the danger line.

Soccer Last Night.

Coach Stiehm gave his spring football aspirants a taste of soccer last night. Needless to say, the aspirants are without suggestion cutting out the company of Miss "N."

Iowa Engineers Give Interesting Exhibit.

The engineers of the University of Iowa last week gave a very interesting exhibit, which was attended by a record crowd of alumni, students of other colleges and townspeople. The laboratories were all visited in succession. One of the most interesting features was a genuine electric chair in operation. All who attended expressed themselves as very much pleased with the exhibit.
