Many Orders Coming From Outside—Will Not Last Two Days—Details of the Big Annual—Choice of Two Books.

Tomorrow and Thursday subscriptions will be taken for the 1914 Cornhusker, the biggest and best of its kind ever issued at Nebraska. No expense has been spared to make it not only the equal of any other college annual in the middle west, but the ambition of the management has been to eclipse anything ever put out by any university in this part of the country. A staff artist has been at work for the past six months making oil paintings, which will be reproduced in the various sections of the book at a great cost. The football section is larger and more complete than that of any previous issue and is illustrated from the beginning throughout an entire section covering fifty pages. The senior pictures have been placed in an entirely new system, with a beautiful and expensive border at the top and a beautiful etching drawn by a famous Minnesota artist further decorates the page. A large student life section, which is devoted entirely to the fun-loving side of every student, is featured in various colors and is something never before seen in a Cornhusker. In this section snap shots of every organization and of practically every student in the University appear prominently on each page and a catchy write-up of many of our popular students adorns these pages.

The management are placing two books before the students this year. The standard book, which will be bound in full seal black cowhide with

GANZ WINS FROM WADE IN WRESTLING BOUT

Winner Will Represent Nebraska at Chicago—Team to Leave Friday Afternoon.

Monday evening at five o'clock, in the Armory, was staged one of the prettiest exhibitions of wrestling one would care to see. The bout was between Merle Wade and Captain Carl Ganz. The contest was waged to see who would represent Nebraska at the Western Conference gymnastic exhibition, which will be held in Chicago on Saturday night of this week. The contest was waged for the full ten minutes without a fall, when Coach Owen Dally, who acted as referee, awarded the decision to Captain Ganz for waging the most aggressive battle. The decision was lustily cheered by the small crowd of mat fans who were present. To be fair to the loser it must be said that he wrestled a game battle and at the announcement of the referee's decision was the first to congratulate his victor. Captain Ganz showed his superior ability both on offense and defense. The wrestling team will leave for Chicago Friday afternoon. The men who will make the trip are Pascal, Captain Ganz and Gunther.

BARNYARD NEWS

THE GLEE CLUB'S HOME CONCERT MIDDLE OF MAY

Will Be No Annual Trip—All Efforts Concentrated on Home Program.

The home concert of the University Glee Club will be given about the middle of May. It is very probable that the club will not make a trip this year, as has been the custom in former seasons. Mrs. Raymond is drilling the sixteen members regularly on some exceptionally good music and a high class program is expected.

This is the club's first year under the jurisdiction of the University authorities and the members are especially desirous of showing up well under the new plan.

The chief reason for the failure to make a trip this spring was the lack of preparation. A number of first class glee clubs have been on the road and the local organization did not wish to make an appearance until they were in the best of condition.

Since giving up their idea of a trip they have concentrated all their efforts upon the home program and it gives promise of being one of the best ever attempted. The club has some excellent material and under the leadership of Mrs. Raymond, nothing but the best results could be expected.

The Glee Club is conducted as any other course in the University and credit is given for the work. It affords a splendid opportunity to any person who has the talent to obtain excellent musical training.

The home concert will be given at the Temple. President Griswold announces that although the date has not been definitely set, it will be given about the middle of May.

Tryouts for the senior play will be held at Ames, April 7. The play, "Polish," is a drama written by Miss Helen Osler, a student.

INTERSORORITY COUNCIL PREPARING SET OF RULES

Assessment Made to Assist in Expenses of Girls' Club Delegate to National Convention.

At the intersorority council meeting last evening, rules for next year were discussed, and practically settled. A few points, however, were left to the discussion of the separate sororities and will be brought up for final voting next Monday night. The rules will soon be definitely settled, printed and ready for circulation.

It was voted that twenty dollars or two dollars from each sorority should be given to the treasurer of the Girls' Club to help in sending the "newly elected president" of the Girls' Club to the national convention which will be held in Bloomington, Ind., this spring.

Next Tuesday evening all the sorority house girls will take their dinner at the Temple in order that house rules for next year may be discussed.

PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR MADE LAST SATURDAY

Round Up to Be Made More Extensive Next Year—Reese Not on the Program—Out of City.

Rev. Mr. Eldidge spoke at the round up meeting held in the University Temple last Saturday in place of O. N. Magee, who was unable to attend. Herbert Reese, president of the University Y. M. C. A., who was to speak on "Spring Practice," was called out of the city and Messrs. Kindig, Raver and Showalter spoke in his stead on the "York Convention," held at York, Neb., during the spring vacation. Besides suggestions for the coming year's work, E. E. Bennett of the Midwest Life Insurance Company gave a practical talk on "Enlisting Men for Service."

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE ALPHA O BANQUET

The twelfth annual banquet of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority was held at the Lincoln Hotel, Saturday night. About sixty members were present. Elsie Ford Piper and Emily Trigg responded with toasts from the alumni, Melvina Waters from the seniors, Elsie Fitzgerald, the juniors; Veva Young, sophomores, and Lucile Saunders from the freshmen.

The out-of-town people present were: Janet Ramey, Greenleaf, Kan.; Grace Cannon, Syracuse, Neb.; Mathilda and Freddie Stenger, Janet McCallister, Columbus, Neb.; Katherine Follmer, Oak, Neb.; Stella Butler, Aaron, Ia.; Mrs. Leslie Higgins, Laura Peterson, Bess Mitchell, Omaha, Neb.; Ruth Wheelock, Beatrice, Neb.; Mrs. Chas. Iowa.

A great sensation was created in Iowa University circles when it was learned that petitions were being circulated by certain alumni asking for the removal of Mr. N. A. Kellogg, athletic director of Iowa. The petition accuses Mr. Kellogg of mismanagement of athletic affairs of the university, both as to finances and otherwise, and of various other charges.

DR. BESSEY RETURNS

VALUABLE STUDY MADE OF WESTERN PLANTS AT ARIZONA.

NEBRASKANS ENTERTAIN HIM

Gives Important Lecture to University of Arizona—Fine Reception Tendered Him in Denver—Will Lecture Here.

Dr. Bessey has returned from his trip to Tucson, Ariz., where he has been since March 1. He left Lincoln Saturday, February 28, for Denver, where he was met by F. W. Morrel and Carlos Bates, former University of Nebraska students now in the United States Forest Service. Dr. Bessey spent about an hour with these men and then took the train for Tucson, passing through Colorado Springs, Pueblo and La Junta in Colorado, and Las Vegas, Albuquerque, Rincon, and Deming in New Mexico, reaching Tucson, Ariz., a little more than sixty miles from the Mexican boundary line.

The city of Tucson has a population of about 15,000 and lies on a plain surrounded by mountains. The climate is very dry, the rainfall being a little more than eleven inches a year. About half the population is Mexican, but over nine-tenths of the wealth is possessed by Americans. The land belonged wholly to Mexicans fifty years ago; it is now almost wholly owned by the Americans, who occupy the most desirable parts of the city and country, leaving the less desirable portions for Mexicans.

Dr. Bessey's main purpose in going to Tucson was one of study at the Carnegie Institution botanical laboratory located there under the name of the Desert Botanical Laboratory. The laboratory is a one-story building about 125 feet long. All the vegetation around the building was left growing, as the purpose was to have

SPELLING REFORM IN UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS

Regents Decide That Various Methods of Spelling Not Systematic—Committee Works.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Regents arrangements were made to establish a uniform form of spelling in the University publications. Heretofore one department has been accustomed to use the old form of spelling, while other departments find the new or simplified form more suitable. A committee of University faculty members has been appointed to look into the matter of the best form of spelling to use in publications, and after the decision has been made every publication on the campus will have either the old form or the simplified form of spelling—not part of one and part of the other.

The formerly called "Head of Department" will hereafter be known as professor in charge of department. The reason for this action on the part of the board is due to the fact that some of the men in certain departments, although not at the head, are fully as competent and receive as much salary.
