

INSPECTION EARLY

MANY MILITARY EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED FOR THIS SPRING.

APRIL 22 IS DAY OF EVENTS

Sham Battle to Be Held—University Cadets to Oppose State Farm Soldiers—Dates Not Yet Definitely Settled.

Lieutenant Bowman is making arrangements with the Chancellor concerning certain field maneuvers which he is planning for the cadets. These maneuvers are to take place during the next two weeks and are to be a preparation for the government inspection which is to take place on April 22. The plan must meet the approval of the Chancellor before anything definite can be done. The exercises will include at least one whole afternoon event and one or two which will last from 4 until 6 p. m. It is planned that on one afternoon there shall be a maneuver between the University regiment and that at the State Farm. The event will take place north of Lincoln. Blank ammunition will be used and it is expected to give to it all the appearance of regular warfare. It is expected to make a feature of this exercise and will also serve an instruction preparatory to the government inspection. Umpires will be on the field to decide as to the winning regiment. Another exercise will be a joint parade of the two regiments. (Continued on page 2)

GIRLS' CLUB BOARD MEETS AT FIVE TODAY

Nomination of Officers—Delegate to Go to National Conference—Election Earlier This Year.

The Girls' Club board will meet today to talk over the nominations for the officers for next year. Next Tuesday at 5 p. m. a mass meeting of all girls will be held for the nomination of other minor officers. Election will probably take place the last of next week. Miss Blanchard, secretary of State University Y. W. C. A.'s, will be present at the meeting.

The method of election of the Girls' Club officers is as follows: President and vice-president are elected from the junior class and preferably shall have served on the board. The secretary will be elected from the sophomore and the treasurer from the freshman class. Nomination of officers and members of the executive board will occur at a mass meeting to be held one week before election.

The election is being held earlier than usual this year, for the purpose of selecting the delegate for the national girls' club conference. It is the custom for the "president-elect" to go as delegate to this conference.

Miss Blanchard, the secretary of State University Y. W. C. A.'s, will be here next week. She holds a new position, and it is desired that as many of the girls will meet her as possible. She will be present at the girls' mass meeting on Tuesday. All girls are urged to be there and learn to know her.

CORNHUSHERS SOLD BEYOND ALL EXPECTATIONS

One Thousand and Twenty-seven Go First Day—Record Breaker—Gaily Colored Tags in Evidence.

The sale of the 1914 Cornhusker was the greatest for the first day in the history of the University. One thousand and twenty-seven of the 1,375 copies ordered were sold, surpassing all expectations. Manager Swift expresses himself as well pleased with the outcome of the first day's sale. He predicts that every book will surely be gone by tomorrow night. As large a sale is anticipated for today as that of yesterday, since many students were unable to order their books on account of the short time between classes.

Although the de luxe edition is more expensive than the standard, almost as many of these were ordered as the standard. Manager Swift states that the de luxe book is the best year book that has ever been sold by any University for the same price. At Wisconsin last year the Bodger sold 300 of this edition at $5.00 each. The management was able to make this low price owing to the heavy amount of advertising which makes up the difference in price.

Today will be the last chance to order one of the 1914 year books and all persons desiring books are urged to get them early before the supply is exhausted.

The following are those who will take the orders: Elizabeth Hyde, Ruth M. Squires, J. W. Ferris, Leon Samuelson, William Neville, "Jake" Schwab, "Mike" Poteet, Reed Dawson, L. W. Charlesworth, Russell Swift, R. W. Hahn, P. C. Spencer, R. V. Koupal and Karl L. Janouch. Orders may be sent into the office at any time today.

The de luxe edition will require a deposit of $1.50 and the other $1.00.

ENGINEERS' DANCE AT LINDELL FRIDAY NIGHT

Tickets Are Going Fast—Committee Promises Plenty of Room—Few Tickets Left.

On Friday of this week the Engineering Society holds their second hop of the school year. The committee report that the tickets are nearly all sold and the late ones had better hurry if they wish to attend this hop. The committee state that the ballroom will not be crowded and that elaborate preparations have been made to make this one of the very best dances of the present social season. The event will be staged in the new Lindell ballroom and promises to be a success in every respect. What few tickets that there are left are in the hands of the committee, Kjellgaard, Beck and Peterson, and can be had of them.

PHARMACISTS' ANNUAL WILL BE A GOOD ONE

Promises to Be Full of Wit and Humor—Pharmaceutical Celebrities Portrayed.

The annual that is to be issued by the School of Pharmacy will be out in a few weeks. Take-offs on all the profs and snap shots of all the prominent pharmacists in the school will be published; also a choice collection of jokes that have been picked up during the year.

This year's annual will also include a number of feature stories on "Fat Irwin," "Fat" Harrison, "Dietrich," and others whose antics have delighted the "Pharmics."

Potter Howard has charge of the annual. Distribution will be limited to the pharmacy students.

SPRING OPENING NUMBER OF THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

All the Styles of the Season to Be Shown—Something New in Journalistic Line.

One of the biggest things the NEBRASKAN has attempted this year is the production of their Annual Spring Opening Number. The business department, has been busy night and day for the past week getting it into shape for the subscribers tomorrow. It is a new venture in college journalism and its reception by the students this year will largely govern its future appearance.

It is issued primarily for the advertisers of the NEBRASKAN. It will contain their opening spring announcements, including reading matter prepared by experts in the various wearing apparel lines, under the direction of the advertising department.

Among the features will be an authentic dress chart, articles on men's wearing apparel, spring millinery, spring costumes for women, a description of the various window displays about the city, besides many other specialties with regard to spring fashions.

The edition will contain twelve pages, entirely separate from the regular Daily, making a paper of sixteen pages in all. Watch for Friday's Rag if you want to become posted on all the different phases of up-to-date dress. Fashions from Paris, London, New York and all of the various other "elite centers" will be represented. Watch for the Spring Opening Number of the DAILY NEBRASKAN tomorrow.

Vesper Service.

The Y. W. C. A. vesper service Thursday will be on the subject "Camp Fire Girls." Some interesting talks will be made.

TO INSTRUCT SOCCER

FAMOUS ENGLISH PLAYER WILL INSTRUCT HUSKERS.

BOOTING PIGSKIN IS POPULAR

About Fifty Men Taking to the Great English Game—Coach Stiehm Thinks There Should Be Two Hundred.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Cornhuskers will receive their first instruction in soccer. Coach Stiehm is a big kid as the youngest freshman and has gotten very enthusiastic over the great English game. He complains that not enough men are turning out. He says that 200 men ought to come out for this great college game. No matter whether a man is a freshman or a graduate student, he is eligible to the soccer teams. The instruction on Saturday will be given by an Englishman who was a "crack" or "star" at soccer in his dear hold Hingland, by Jo!

Coach Stiehm is to be congratulated on hunting up a man who can give Nebraskans an idea of the great outdoor sport.

New Men Out.

The spring football practice of Wednesday brought out three new men, A. L. Vidal, W. R. Henley and G. W. Gilligan. All three men are experienced football material. The work Wednesday consisted of bucking the charging machine, working in groups of five, and starting.

SENIOR PLAY TRYOUTS POSTPONED TILL TUESDAY

Not Enough Books on Hand—Play a Great Favorite—All Old Stars Are in the Field.

Tryouts for the senior play have been postponed until next Tuesday evening. This is due to the fact that there is but one copy of the play available for those who wish to try out, and hence all have not had an opportunity to prepare themselves.

It has just been a week since the senior class selected the "Fortune Hunter" for its class play and the committee has found that if the tryouts are held this evening some prospective members of the cast will be unable to compete. The committee is determined to obtain the strongest dramatic material of the class for the cast and prefer to delay the tryouts a few days in order to be sure that all who wish to do so may have full opportunity to prepare and compete in the tryouts.

Much favorable comment has been heard around the campus over the play chosen. "A mighty keen, clever comedy," is a very usual characterization. The committee has been delighted with the approval of the choice of play. There is no doubt but what this play, presented by a cast including "Rockie" Ammerman, Don Ahrens, Guy Williams, Guy Kiddoo, Neil Brown, Charles Epperson, Marion Preece, Helen Sorenson, and other capable members of the class, will be one of the best class plays ever produced at the University.
