The DAILY NEBRASKAN purposes to be the free voice of student sentiment; to be fair; to be impartial; to seek advice as well as offer it; to truthfully picture college life; to go further than the mere printing of news by standing for the highest ideals of the University; in short, to serve the University of Nebraska.

The senior class is in debt over two hundred dollars. Yesterday and today the committee representing the class is selling invitations and announcements. Heretofore the chairman of this committee has profited much from their sale. But this year all the proceeds go to help wipe out the class deficit. And the invitations and announcements are being sold cheaper this year than ever before.

This is a step in the right direction. There is no reason in the world why any one person should make a large profit from the sale of articles which almost the entire class purchase. We believe this should hold true also of all dances, plays and other amusements.

The chairman of class dances have been warned by law and prohibited by a careful system of auditing from making one red cent. Yet they are certainly as much entitled to a share of the profits—if profit there be—as is the chairman of an invitation committee or of a class play.

We are not in favor of charity. Neither are we trying to criticize the present management of the senior play. Mr. Kiddoo has almost undertaken charity work. What we do believe should be done is to pay the men who give their time and energy to making class activities a success. Pay them a stipulated salary. They certainly earn it. The chairman of an all-University dance deserves as much as the chairman of an all-University play. If we are going to pay one, why not pay them all, and pay them a definite amount for each activity? Otherwise, make them all honor—all charity.

The chairman of the invitation committee will not receive one penny this year. Heretofore he received enough to accept several formal bids. This was wrong. But so is the charity business. Time, even that of a student, is valuable. If you pay for it in a definite way, there is no temptation for graft and there is no empty honor and charity.

SOCCER MAKING A HIT WITH HUSKERS

Coach Stiehm Enthusiastic Over the Results Obtained From the English Game.

Soccer football has come to Nebraska to stay. This sport, which will give opportunity to the many for athletic recreation, is an adaptation of "association" and resembles ice hockey, except that one uses a ball instead of a puck, and two feet instead of a club. V. W. Stimson, of Ashby, England, has been engaged to coach the boys. He has played four seasons as "right inside" on Ashby teams.

Practices in soccer are held on the athletic field Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from 2 till 5:30. The idea of introducing soccer was to give opportunity to many who have no chance in the so-called "major sports" such as football and basketball.

There are two teams in Omaha which will be brought to Lincoln to stage an exhibition game in the near future. Later, if possible, they will be pitted against the 'varsity soccer team. Interclass games are assured if the men will but turn out. Coach Stiehm is very enthusiastic over the sport, declaring that it gives the University what it has been severely criticised for lacking—good athletic training for everybody. Anybody who has the time and the inclination can play. There are no "old heads" here. Everybody will start out equal. There is no limit to the number who can play in this sport, as several teams will be made up.

Soccer is not offered at all as a substitute for football. It merely supplements the more strenuous sport. Many are the reasons why this sport has been taken up here and in over one hundred representative colleges and universities in America. Leland Stanford and the University of California have even dropped football for soccer. The coach takes this opportunity to issue an open invitation to all to get out and get into the fun. It can't hurt—and it will benefit.

DELTA ARE CHAMPS

and lost by a narrow margin this season.

Co-eds Attend.

For the first time during the season's tournament a number of the fair ones dared to witness the brutality of such a conflict. The general impression among the co-eds seemed to be that "it was just horrible," "simply awful," etc.

One young lady who missed her dinner just to see the contest remarked, "I have heard of Roman gladiatorial contests, I have read of men and women being thrown in dens with ravenous lions, but, believe me, those victims got off easy. They never had to play in a frat basketball game."

To one who could get his mind off the game for a minute it was interesting to watch the side-lines. During every intermission for fouls, held ball, etc., lemons, wet towels, ice bags, sponges and other refreshing novelties filled the air. The spent and weary boxers gathered them in avariciously.

The following is the line-up:

Delta	Phi Psi
Milliken..... forward	Sussman
Carroll..... forward	Selzer
Shepard..... center	Gardner
Hager..... guard	Phillips
Sloan..... guard	Porter
Substitute—Baumann.

Score at the end of the first half: Delta 5, Phi Psi 5.

Final score: Delta Tau Delta 10, Delta 5, Phi Psi 3.

Referee—Hawkins.
