The DAILY NEBRASKAN purposes to be the free voice of student sentiment; to be fair; to be impartial; to seek advice as well as offer it; to truthfully picture sollege life; to go further than the mere printing of news by standing for the highest ideals of the University; in short, to serve the University of Nebraska.

We want action on the student council proposal. We want to see the freshmen delegates elected and elected next Tuesday. Then we want to see the convention called together and organized for business. And we want them to do business and do it quickly. The time for framing and submitting a constitution is dangerously near over.

What is the matter here? Why all the delay? Who is responsible? Or is there anyone at all responsible? This in itself is a powerful argument for the adoption of a council. Here in this proposal we have business of vital importance to the whole school. It is necessary to the transaction of this business that the greatest possible speed be exercised. And yet, instead of speed, we have the most inexcusable delay. And upon whom rests the responsibility? Evidently upon no of University importance would be properly dispatched. This is one of the reasons why we are in favor of a student council. This is one of the reasons why we demand that these delegates upon whom the responsibility of launching one of the most vital University questions has been placed, act and act at once.

to be broken at any time and many on the campus are wondering if this will be the time. The men who will play their third and last year of football next fall, named alphabetically, are Halligan, Howard and Mastin. Many think that the new leader will be one of these three men. This much is certain, any one of the men would be hailed as a great leader and the only sorrow would be that the other two could not have an equal honor bestowed upon them. Who will be the captain? ... o one knows now, but next Tuesday the Rag will tell you.

The Star Course has made arrangements with the University Band whereby the band is to be presented to patrons of the course in place of Bohumir Kryl and his band. Owing to certain troubles with the labor union, the Kryl band would have been forced to come down at a prohibitive price. As a result the University Band has been booked up instead. The Star Course is an annual event and the band will thus be given an opportunity to present an annual concert.

CO-EDS DISCUSS THEIR FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Estimated That It Costs the Average

Girl $410 a Year at College.

The Thursday evening Vesper Service was opened by a song by Hazel King. The subject of the vesper service was "What Became of That Last Check?" The first talk, "Petty Extravagances," was given by Louise Bedwell. She had consulted twenty-five girls and found that their extravagance centered about eating, and included everything from sodas to hamburgers.

The next speaker, Erma Nave, gave some interesting facts about "Pet Economies." She called attention to certain foolish economies like undereating, but recommended walking to save car fare.

Norma Kidd had real statistics well worked out and from many different sources. Her conclusions were that the necessities amount to about the same for all college girls and that the difference in expenditures between the girl who spends $300 and the one who spends $600 is in sundries and luxuries. The average expenditure in a year for the Nebraska girl is $410.

Miss Clark, the last speaker, had the subject "What Would You Like to Buy?" She dwelt especially on the fact that the University Y. W. C. A. can easily pay Miss Coppock's salary of $1,500 next year if every one will become interested enough to set aside a certain small sum each week for this purpose. She contrasted the investment in petty extravagances with the rich investment every college girl is privileged to make in Miss Coppock's life and work.

Denver.

The Denver Clarion came out on the morning of April 9 with a bright pink sheet, calling it the "Scandal Number." All the scandal about the school was collected and made light of in this number. It told of how one of the most prominent fraternities had been found guilty of stealing chickens. The judge advised the fraternity to move out of town where the temptation would not be so great. He sentenced the chapter to six months' hard labor, and costs. It further said that the Kappa Sigs were planning to be missionaries, break up their chapter and devote their time to converting the heathen in China.

To the Subscribers of the Daily Nebraskan:

During the campaign for new subscribers during the past registration week, promissory notes for $1.00 were taken by the management as equivalent to the cash subscription.

While these notes are payable on the demand of the publishers, it is not the intent of the publishers to demand the payment at a certain date but it understood that payment must be made before the signer of the note leaves school.

Those who are indebted to the Daily Nebraskan for the present semester may visit the office in the basement of University Hall at any time and upon the payment of $1.00 receive a receipt in full.

Prompt payment will assist the management very materially in making a full financial report before the end of the school year.
