

LATIN CLUB CELEBRATES SHAKESPEARE ANNIVERSARY

The "Menaechmi of Plautus" Given by Members of the Club in Costume.

A program appropriate to the celebration of the Shakespeare anniversary was given at the meeting of the Latin Club this week. The Menaechmi of Plautus, from which the plot of the Comedy of Errors was taken, was read in costume. The identity of those taking part was concealed by wigs and masks.

Miss Outhouse and Miss Blandin ably represented the twin brothers in the amusing situations where each is taken for the other. Miss Mildred Cuba, as Messoio, acted the part of the anxious servant of Menaechmus, who finally explained the mystery. Mr. Romer appeared in the role of the hungry parasite who reported the actions of Menaechmus to his wife. Miss Hazel Shue appeared as the injured wife of Menaechmus. Miss Hummel and Miss Friedline acted the parts of the hospitable Erotium and her maid. The comedy element was well sustained by Miss Dysart, as the decrepit father of the injured wife, and Miss Bixby, as the saucy cook.

The success of the program was due to the efforts of Miss Hunter, who coached the cast.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON BANQUET AT LINCOLN

Forty-Six Men in Attendance—Seven Alumni—Fourth Annual Function.

The fourth annual banquet of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity was held in the Lincoln Hotel banquet room last night. Seven of the forty-six men in attendance were out-of-town men, as follows: J. M. Dye, Carson, Iowa; E. R. Spaulding, Sutherland; V. D. Andrews, Beatrice; L. E. Gregg, E. J. Wotawa, Omaha; W. J. Krug, South Omaha; F. A. Wirt, Manhattan, Kan., and R. O. McBrien, Kearney.

Farm Commencement.

The commencement week for the School of Agriculture will come next week, lasting from April 20 to 24. There will be eighty-nine graduates, eighteen girls and seventy-one boys. Sixteen of the class will graduate from the normal training course and will receive county teachers' certificates. This is the largest class in the history of the school, the next largest coming in 1910, when there were eighty-four in the class. Last year there were but fifty.

PICKED PICKINGS

We are all very glad to behold the smiling face of Evans in our midst again. We also feel sure that Peg Rustin of movie fame is glad. Evans is one of the better known leaders of the freshman class.

Mary Elliott, formerly of the University, is spending Saturday and Sunday at the Achoth house. Miss Elliott requests us to announce that inasmuch as Sunday is open house anyhow at the Achoth sorority, she desires that all her old friends around school call and renew acquaintance. The house party Saturday night is to be given largely in her honor.

One well known sorority, situated just off the campus on R street, has adopted a new plan of campaign for capturing the trophy offered by Awgwan for the most popular sorority in school. This scheme was discovered entirely by accident by a passer-by. It is this: Every Thursday evening between the hours of seven and eight, the frosh of this sorority are assembled upon the front porch and are put through the intricacies of a made-to-measure song which sounds something like this, "Sit down, Sit down, we're the only sorority in town," etc. The lyrics and music of several other like songs are now being prepared by one of the upper classmen.

The war in Mexico has nothing on the cadet war which took place Thursday afternoon in respect to fierceness and amount of heroism displayed. One cadet company has been given especially honorable mention. This particular company imagined that they sighted the State Farm enemy embattled in an old deserted incubator factory which adorns the village of Belmont. They charged gallantly and, running out of ammunition, resorted to clods as missiles. When the officer in command peered through one of the broken windows he could see no enemy. It was decided that they must have fled before the shower of dirt.

Almost all the absentees from classes Friday afternoon answered to roll call at the Antelope Ball Park. Fans are very much the thing during these hot days, anyhow.

As an object lesson of consistency, note the example set by a prominent senior law at the recent banquet of the Dramatic Club. All of those present except this one were in formal costume, but this particular gentleman declared that he had never worn a dress suit during his infancy and he did not intend to start now. We do not expose his name, but his front moniker is a hard one, and his initials are R. K. A.

Mike O'Hanlon, captain-adjutant of the cadets, is recovering nicely from a severe fall which he received last night. Captain O'Hanlon was attempting to mount his charger, preparatory to entering the sham battle, when the accident occurred.

It is rumored that R. W. Garrett, a prominent senior law, has again resumed his college work.

Attorney G. S. Brown of the senior law class officiated as foreman of the jury in a recent case before a Lincoln court, which found a colored lady "not guilty" of assault and battery. (Passed by the Student Censorship Board.)

Northwestern.

The primary election by the sophomore, junior and senior classes for the nomination of candidates for positions on the student council were held on Wednesday. In the sophomore class two men and two women were nominated from which one man and one woman will be elected at the final election. The juniors nominated six men and four women, from whom four men and two women will be elected. The seniors nominated six men and eight women, from whom three men and four women will be elected. The president of each class will be a member of the council. Each student will vote for representatives of his own class; the men will vote for the men and the women will vote for the women. The council will thus be composed of seventeen members—nine men and eight women.

Unless it rains or snows, all must walk to the Junior Prom at Kansas this year. Such was the statement made by the managers a few days ago. Neither are there to be any flowers. Heretofore cabs and flowers have been in order for this occasion, but the managers are sure that the idea will be satisfactory to all.

To the Subscribers of the Daily Nebraskan:

During the campaign for new subscribers during the past registration week, promissory notes for $1.00 were taken by the management as equivalent to the cash subscription.

While these notes are payable on the demand of the publishers, it is not the intent of the publishers to demand the payment at a certain date but it is understood that payment must be made before the signer of the note leaves school.

Those who are indebted to the Daily Nebraskan for the present semester may visit the office in the basement of University Hall at any time and upon the payment of $1.00 receive a receipt in full.

Prompt payment will assist the management very materially in making a full financial report before the end of the school year.
