

OLUS

Turn Your Shirt Tails Into Drawers
WHAT GOOD ARE SHIRT TAILS ANYWAY?

In OLUS the outside shirt and under-drawers are one garment. This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in the seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. Olus is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration. $1.50 to $10.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS—with regular or short sleeves.

OLUS one-piece Pajamas for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS Shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch.

LAWS TO FEAST ON ROAST BULL THURSDAY

Gathered Yesterday Morning to Discuss the Present Mexican Situation.

The Laws held a special convocation yesterday morning in the Freshman Law room. All classes were temporarily postponed in order to arouse some of the old-time enthusiasm over the Law barbecue which will be held Thursday. Wit, eloquence and other animals were at large. Shortly after nine o'clock, during the staging of a mimic battle in Mexico, Professor Wilson entered and declared a truce.

Baird Griffin occupied the central position and introduced his speakers in an original manner. Those who expounded on the situation were Lee Baysee, "Moony" Prince, Hugh Agor and Guy Kiddoo. The latter was greeted with a round of applause, which bespeaks great success for the senior play.

Tickets are on sale now and going fast, according to the committee. Real barbecue steer is promised.

At the Magnet.

"Paid in Full," the tremendous five-season theatrical success which enjoys a record run on Broadway, New York, has been adapted into scenario form and under the direction of Augustus Thomas of the All Star Feature Corporation has been produced in a five-part picture of powerful strength. Tully Marshall, the originator of the character of the young husband, Joe Brooks; William Riley Hatch, who plays Captain Williams, the rugged old reprobate, and Hattie Russell in the part of Mrs. Harris, are of the original Broadway cast. Supported by a most unusual cast of favorite players, these artists have been persuaded to again appear in their old roles for the camera and are to be seen in the film production.

"Paid in Full" will be shown at the Magnet Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

California.

California's runners, in the recent meet with Stanford, were badly beaten by the Stanford men. The final score was 66 5/6 to 55 1/6 in favor of Stanford.

Kansas.

"University Defies State Fire Laws!" "1,000 in Riot!" were the glaring headlines of the "Yellow Sheet" of the Daily Kansan which appeared a few days ago. Six students are wounded and two are under arrest. The trouble began at the theatre where a Washburn man, wrestling with a Jap, was to receive $25.00 if he stayed with the Jap fifteen minutes. He stayed the fifteen minutes and when he demanded his money he was given only $20.00. From the theatre the students marched up the street to the Carnival, where they got in trouble with the showmen and the riot followed.

Miss Langham is the daughter of Congressman Langham of Pennsylvania. She is said to be the prettiest girl in the congressional set in Washington.

ANNOUNCEMENT

During the remaining weeks of the school year the Daily Nebraskan will issue several special numbers in supplement form. It has been the custom in previous years for various school organizations to ask the management of the Daily Nebraskan to allow one issue of the paper to a certain organization. These special issues have always been successful from the editorial standpoint but nearly always a financial burden to the paper. In the future special editions will be issued in supplement form only as this method allows plenty of time to get news and advertising matter into shape and will not cause a delay in the issue of the daily edition.

During the next five weeks several special editions will be issued as follows:

GIRL'S NUMBER early in May.

PHARMACEUTICAL NUMBER second week in May.

Other EDITIONS will be arranged for during the next few weeks.

Heads of organizations contemplating a special edition as in previous years will kindly consult with the business manager.
