

LAW CELEBRATION

DAY SPENT IN SPORT, FEASTING AND ORATORY AT EPWORTH.

FRESHMEN WIN TRACK MEET

Spillman, Orator of Day, Gives Advice to Graduates—Other Distinguished Visitors Are Present—Seniors Win the Baseball Game.

The University Laws held their annual Christmas and Fourth of July celebration yesterday at Epworth Park. Although there were only about a hundred present, a thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all. Chief Justice Reese and Justices Fawcett, Letton and Sedgwick of the Supreme Bench were among the prominent visitors present. O. S. Spillman, a law grad of 1908, gave the main address of the day. The track meet was won by the freshmen and the baseball supremacy was bestowed upon the senior class after a hard game with the first-year men. Contrary to all expectations, there was no roast bull. The committee reports that although they hunted the entire state of Nebraska over, they were unable to locate a critter plump enough for the occasion, so just plain ham sandwiches with plenty of side dishes was the menu of the mid-day feast.

Team is in Better Shape Than Last Year—Goetze Unable to Go on Account of Injuries.

The Nebraska track team, accompanied by Coach Reed, left yesterday afternoon at 1:30 over the Burlington for Lawrence, where they are to meet Kansas this afternoon in the first dual meet of the year. The team arrived at Kansas City last night and, after spending the night there, continued on to Lawrence early this morning.

The team is in fair condition, and the prospects for taking the meet are not overly bright. The loss of Goetze, who is a stellar performer in the two-mile run, will be keenly felt. While playing baseball last Tuesday, Goetze was so badly injured that he will be unable to accompany the team. His place will be taken by Charlie Anderson.

On the whole the team is a much better one than the team of last year and it promises to make Kansas travel some. Kansas will not have the run-away they had on Nebraska field last

DR. MAXEY TO RACE WITH DEAN ENBERG

Race Arranged for Ivy Day Athletic Program—Both Men in Training.

Jacob wrestled with an angel in the moonlight. Dean Enberg will race Dr. Maxey in the sunlight. The Ivy Day committee announces this event as the feature of the day.

Dr. Maxey issued his challenge yesterday nad when the news was carried to the dean, it is said that he just chuckled and said, "I have been waiting for a long time to beat him at something."

The dean will run in his moscasias and Dr. Maxey will run barefooted. The doctor insisted on this stipulation in the contract.

Both runners will commence training at once. It is said that the dean will cease to use his bicycle and will jaunt to school each day. The doctor will commence a regular diet of buttermilk and grape-nuts.

The winner of this contest will be a candidate for the next Olympics. The addition of this feature to the Ivy Day program is expected to draw a large crowd of track enthusiasts from all over the state.

Charles Epperson—"Blinky" Lockwood in the senior play—has been so favorably received in his previous dramatic efforts that his friends are looking forward to his making another hit on May 5.

Hugh Agor, in the senior play, is the successful friend who starts the hero, Nat Duncan, off on his hunt for a fortune via the marriage route. Mr. Agor carries a strong part very well.

Sketches for a new armory at Illinois are being studied with great interest, and extensive plans are being revealed. The building, when completed, will resemble a huge balloon shed. The cost is to be $400,000.

IVY DAY QUEEN STILL GREAT CAMPUS MYSTERY

All Friends of the Four Nominees Are Confident—Election Entirely Satisfactory.

And still secrecy reigns. Who is the Queen of the May is the question that is bothering all seniors—especially the fair ones. But nobody—outside of the "inner circle"—has the slightest idea just who it is. Some say it is certainly Mildred Scofield. Others are sure it is Bess Rogers. Gladys Bunt, according to many, has already accepted. Elizabeth Scott just can't help but be elected, and is without doubt the girl for the crown, so now you know just who it is. Aren't you glad she was selected? Won't she look sweet and pretty with the crown of roses over her fair brow? Anyway, the girls say the election was all "on the square" and that the right girl has been elected.

WILL NEBRASKA WIN FROM KANSAS—QUESTION

Kansas Strong—Nebraska Men in Doubtful Condition, But Students Have Confidence.

The dope on the track meet with our friends the Jayhawkers is a bit scarce. The meet last year was sad in the extreme. Some of last year's performers for Kansas are to compete against the Huskers again this year. In the hurdles Nebraska has never been strong since Wade McDonald left school. Hazen of Kansas is one of the strongest hurdlers in the Valley and should win both the high and low hurdles. In the distances Nebraska is weakened on the eve of the meet by the injury to Goetze. Edwards of Kansas should run strong in the mile and two-mile events. The Nebraska relay teams are not considered strong. But, win or lose, we have faith in the team. They will make a good showing and fight every inch of the way.

The annual inspection of the state cadet regiment was held a few days ago. It consisted of the regular review, the parade, and drill, and lasted throughout the entire afternoon.

Miss Isabella Coons has taken part so often in Lincoln amateur dramatics that the mere announcement that she is to appear in the senior play assures the public that the part of "Josie Lockwood" will be cleverly presented.

GLEE CLUB TONIGHT

ANNUAL HOME CONCERT THIS EVENING AT TEMPLE

GLASSY PROGRAM PREPARED

Cloyd Stewart Will Give Several Readings—Glee Club Quartette to Make Appearance—Complete Program Given.

The University Glee Club will give its annual home concert at the Temple tonight. Manager Spier and President Griswold report a brisk seat sale during the past two days and a full house is expected. In a private interview with Mrs. Raymond, who has been directing the club, we are assured that tonight's program is one of the best ever attempted by this organization.

There are few important social confessions and a good representation of the student body expects to attend. Those in charge state that the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

Special Features.

The home concert this year is replete with specialties. Cloyd Stewart has been secured as reader and he has prepared several good numbers. The other features will be: Theodore Lehmer, violinist; the University Quartette, and a piano travesty by Clifford Scott.

HUNDRED DOLLAR GAME FREE TO ALL STUDENTS

Soccer is the Big English Game—Promises to Grow Wonderfully Here—All Out.

The first match game of soccer ever to be played in Lincoln will take place at three o'clock Friday Friday afternoon, on Nebraska Field.

It is said that the great English game abounds in close and exciting plays. It is said that soccer is more popular in the British Isles, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and Canada than baseball is in the United States. The gentleman who is authority for such a sweeping statement has been coaching the University soccer team. Mr. Simpson says that Wednesdays and Saturdays are the great soccer days. On the afternoons of the above mentioned days the Englishmen observe half-holidays, hence the need for universal entertainment. Mr. Simpson says that there are more than 8,000 regular match games of soccer every week in the British Isles alone. When one stops and figures that there are no more than 1,000
