LAW CELEBRATION

ald, Aldrich, Scoville p.

Freshman-Senior Game.

Score 5-4.

Seniors.

Towle, Krause, Underwood, Flory, Jamison, Barton, Fielding, Priest, Yates.

Freshmen.

Same.

Dr. Maxey refereed the last match in his usual diplomatic manner. At the end of the fifth inning the score was a tie and the two teams were forced to play it out to a finish. There were several close decisions to be decided. Despite the growling and swinging of bats on the sidelines, the umpire never wavered in his judgment. At one time it was thought the opposing factions would come to blows.

Advice to Seniors.

O. S. Spillman, the main speaker of the day, gave some very practical remarks to the students. He advised the graduating seniors to seek a location at once after receiving their diploma.

"I don't care if you haven't but fifty cents, you ought to establish a law office and settle down. Work hard and results are bound to come," was what he ardently urged.

He also pointed out the value of making good use of our opportunities while in the class rooms, as they will not be fully appreciated until later years. Mr. Spillman disfavours the idea of a young attorney seeking employment in an older man's office, but stated that the best plan was to start out independently.

Co-Ed Attorneys Game.

One of the features of the morning track meet was a race among the co-ed students of the Law College, which was won by Miss Cover, a freshman.
The spirit of the lawyeresses throughout the whole entertainment received favorable comment.

Famous Band Present.

A detachment of the regular Cadet Band gave spice and enthusiasm to the event. They started the morn-ing's program off by a parade through the sacred halls of the Library. The "crabs," "prods," "bookworms," etc., were quite shocked. One girl, it is reported, was unable to study for the rest of the day.

At high noon the band gave an open air concert consisting of several Rhapsodies, Sonatas, Symphonies, a ia Cheer, Cheer, and several other equally famous masterpieces. The choristers of the law profession joined in the trio with a pleasing effect.

league games of baseball in the United States per week, we can realize that soccer is surely popular with Cousin Johnny Bull. The game Friday promises to be a real contest.
The Athletic Board is going to a big expense to get this game. Although it will cost nearly one hundred dollars to play this game, no admission will be charged. If this game is not met by a large turn out it is because the Nebraska student refuses to attend any function unless he can be fleeced at the gate. It is no uncommon sight to see a bunch of Huskers beating it down to the Western League ball park, paying their two bits, and watching a bunch of hired men put on a so-called exhibition. By doing this they help pay the expenses of "so-called moguls" to spend the winter in California, and right now are given the additional opportunity of seeing Lincoln fight for the cellar. By turning out Friday you can save the two bits and witness a coming sport of our University.
