STILL MORE SENIOR PLAY TICKETS MUST BE SOLD

Short One Hundred Dollars for Expenses—Matinee Tickets Go Slow—Clark Busy.

"Seniors who hold class notes ought to exchange them for play tickets," is the advice of Mr. Williams, who has been collecting the senior assessments. He points out that in this way the senior gets full value out of his note, either by using the play seats himself or turning them over to someone else, while if he holds the note until the end of the year indications are that there will not be enough money in the treasury to take it up. Over $500 worth of seats are sold for the senior play. "It will take over another hundred, however, to pay expenses," is the pessimistic statement of the manager. "We are having two full new sets of scenery painted and this, with other heavy expenses, makes this the most expensive play ever presented at the University."

Matinee seats are not going as well as the evening seats. The lower floor for the night performance is practically all gone, but those who attend the matinee performance will see as complete a performance in every way as in the evening, and in addition may secure much better seats. Clarence Clark is the busy person connected with the senior play just now. He is collecting soda fountains, gas tanks, stoves, book-cases, all the furnishings of a complete modern drug store, and is preparing to bring on the rain at the end of the play just as the hero gets a strangle-hold on the fair one of his choice.

PHI GAMMA DELTA TO HOLD ANNUAL FESTIVITIES

Dance at the Lincoln Friday Night—Banquet at the Lindell Saturday Night.

On Friday and Saturday of this week will be held the annual festivities of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The program consists of a formal party on Friday night, given at the Lincoln Hotel, and which will be attended by about ninety couples. The hall will be tastefully decorated for the occasion with the fraternity colors and their flower predominating. Hagensick's orchestra of ten pieces will furnish the music.

On the following night will be held their annual banquet in the large banquet room of the Lindell Hotel. Plates have been reserved for over one hundred members and it promises to be one of the finest and largest in attendance of any fraternity banquet given. The guests of the occasion, which is in celebration and commemoration of Founders Day, will be C. C. Chambers, the national field secretary; F. Reiber, Jr., of Omaha, one of their lay archons, and H. J. L. Stark, the chief of Section Twelve.

A commendable toast list has been prepared for the function which, together with some cabaret stunts by the active chapter, and music by Hagen-sick's orchestra, insures to those in attendance an enjoyable time.

AGGIES AND WESLEYAN TO PLAY BALL TODAY

Aggies Laying for the Methodists' Scalp—To Even Up Old Scores.

The famous Nebraska Aggies will cross bats with the fast Wesleyan aggregation on the Wesleyan field tomorrow afternoon. Manager Harley announces that he has his men in the best of condition and that they are preparing to give the Methodists an awful defeat, which will serve to revenge last winter's basketball game. A large crowd of fans from the city is expected to witness the match.

The Aggies have several good games scheduled for the near future and are conducting regular practices. A game with Peru Normal has been scheduled for the latter part of the month.
