

MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA AT THE OLIVER, MAY 25

FESTIVAL HISTORY.

TWO PROGRAMS IN THE OLIVER THEATER MONDAY MAY 25.

CHORUS OF TWO HUNDRED.

Introductory Program at Temple Saturday Night—Board of Regents Appointed a Committee to Arrange Festival.

The First May Festival ever given under the direct auspices of the University will open Saturday night, May 23, with the opera "Il Trovatore," in concert form at the Temple.

On Monday, the 25th, the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Emil Oberhoffer, will give two complete programs in the Oliver theater.

The May Festival is the outgrowth of a plan formulated by a group of interested people when the Orchestra appeared here last year. At the suggestion of Professor Grumann and Mrs. Raymond, Chancellor Avery placed the matter of securing the same organization for this year before the Board of Regents. The Board took kindly to the idea and officially appointed Chancellor Avery, Regent Allen and Professor Grumann as a committee to make arrangements. Through the instrumentality of Mrs. Raymond the Orchestra was engaged for a series of two concerts. The contract calls for a complete orchestra and four soloists which will be supplemented by the University Chorus of two hundred voices.

The Orchestra is now on its annual spring tour, during which they are billed to play ninety-six concerts in fifty-four different towns, ranging from Winnipeg, Canada, to Columbia, Mo., and from Kalamazoo, Mich., to Lincoln. The Orchestra has always been popular with the musical people of Lincoln and the requests for seats indicate that the Oliver will be sold out several days in advance of the date for the concerts.

Important Notes On the May Festival

1. "Il Trovatore" in concert form Saturday evening, May 23, Temple Theatre. Admission to holders of special tickets, 25c; all others, 50c.
2. Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, Monday, May 25. Matinee, 2:30; evening, 8:15. Prices, $1.50 to 50c. Student tickets on sale Friday at $1.50 for both.
3. Students buying tickets excused from classes Monday afternoon, May 25th. A list will be turned in to the Executive Dean.
4. The closing of the library, art galleries, museums, laboratories and offices has been authorized by the Chancellor.
5. Student tickets bought Friday exchanged for reserved seats, Tuesday, the 19th.
6. Groups of ten or more students may arrange for seats together without standing in line at the box office. See Mr. Cornell in Registrar's office Friday or Saturday of this week.
7. Requests for reserved seats at the general admission rate may be filed with Mr. Cornell until Saturday, the 16th, at 6 p. m., after which seats may be reserved at the Oliver.
8. The two Symphony concerts will have different programs.

FETE DAY MEET

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FROM ENTIRE STATE TO COMPETE.

GOPHER MEET SAME DAY

Large Crowd Expected Out for Double Event—Manager Reed a Trifle Anxious—Season Tickets Taken at the Gate.

Coach Reed is wearing a long face, caused by worrying about the coming of the Minnesota Gophers. The Gophers are to meet the Huskers on Nebraska Field Saturday afternoon. It is rumored that they are coming down to Lincoln with the avowed purpose of avenging that 7 to 0 football score of last November and those two basket-ball drubbings of February. The Gophers are showing real class this spring. On Saturday, May 2nd, they gave the Iowa Hawkeyes a trimming on their own field. The Minnesota men are an exceptionally heavy track team and should the field be muddy it would greatly increase their chances. Track followers are picking Coach Reed's men as favorites in the dashes and giving Minnesota the advantage in the long distances. The strength of the Gopher relay team is unknown, but it is expected to measure up with former Minnesota relay teams. In the field events and hurdles Nebraska has a slight advantage. Minnesota has no one who compares favorably with Mr. Seven Myers. Seven is showing up as one of the sensations of the Valley. The big boy from York, who is so tall that he has to sit down to reach his pockets, has been performing in phenomenal shape. In the weight events Seven will be assisted by Clinton Cupid Ross, who was able to annex a couple of seconds over Ames last Saturday.

Captain Doodle and Herb Reese will enter the broad jump and expect to place. Myers should score in the high

(Continued on page 2)

Fete Day Meet
Neb. v. Minn. Meet

SATURDAY
May 16, 1:30 p. m.