FETE DAY MEET

jump. Doodle and Stoney should make a clean sweep in the pole vault.
Stoney should be able to place in the hurdles. Just what chance will do is all on how the men feel Saturday.
Season tickets are going to be good.

The Fete Day meet is going to come off at the same time and as a result it is practically assured that a monster crowd will turn out.

Auditor Williams is going to check the season tickets at the gate and will take up any ticket presented by any other than the rightful holder.

The general admission for the double meet will be fifty cents. All University students will be admitted for 25 cents and their season tickets.
The total of the money gate receipts will go to the visiting high school men.

Some students have been wondering why an extra charge was to be made at the gate Saturday at the Fete Day-Minnesota-Nebraska meets. The afternoon will see a double bill. Season tickets will be good for the one-half of the admission price. Every cent taken in at the gate will go toward paying the expenses of the visiting high-school contestants.

PROMINENT SOLOISTS

WITH MAY FESTIVAL.

Participants in the Program Known

Highly Recommended.

van Vliet, Dutch Cellist.

Since joining the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra two years ago, Mr. van Vliet, the Dutch 'cellist, has established a reputation as a soloist which the envy of all other artists on this difficult, awkward, but beautiful-toned instrument. The brilliancy and virtuosity of his playing is simply irresistable and wherever he has appeared his success has been instan-taneous. However, this was no more than was to be expected of an artist of his reputation and experience. Previous to his coming to America, three years ago, he was connected with the leading symphony and opera orchestras of Holland, Germany, Austria and Russia, in addition to having made several concert tours on the continent. It was shortly after his arrival in this country that he was engaged as solo 'cellist of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, and since then the success of his appearances as soloist with the Orchestra, during the eastern tours of both last and this year, and during last year's spring tour were little short of sensational. It was more than sensational, it was permanent, as is confirmed by the fact that every city where he appeared has tried to secure his services for a recital or concert.

On three occasions when Mr. van Vliet was soloist with the Orchestra in Minneapolis this season the house has been sold out and hundreds turned away. In the case of Mr. Czerwony, Alma Beck, Contralto.

concertmaster of the Orchestra, the same condition held true.

Leonora Allen, the young American soprano, who is to appear here with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, was born at Decatur, Ill. Miss Allen came to Chicago in 1906, where she coached for opera with Herman De-
