Banker to Speak.

Dr. P. L. Hall, president of the Central National Bank, will speak on the new Currency Act before the class in Money and Banking, Monday morning at nine o'clock, in U. 207. Everyone interested in this subject is invited.

What is the price of an empty four-ounce bottle?"

Druggist: "It's five cents; but it's free if I put something in it."

"Well, then, put a cork in it," said the satisfied customer.

Purdue.

The juniors of Purdue held one of their largest meetings in years a few days ago. Plans for the adoption of the honor system were discussed at some length. A desire to adopt the honor system in the senior class next year was shown by all present. The resolutions passed by the committee, appointed by the president, were accepted without a dissenting vote.

LOST—Thursday, a bunch of keys, probably in the postoffice. Return to Registrar.
